Senate Fight Continues on Rule Change

Johnson Is Confident Of Beating Maneuver By Antifilibuster Bloc

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson said today he was agreeable to a quick showdown on a move to substitute a stiffer proposal for his own compromise anti-filibuster plan.

The Texan's offer indicated he was confident of mustering the votes to beat back a counter-attack planned by strategists for a bipartisan bloc of senators advocating a tougher clamp-down on filibusters.

Outflanks Opposition

Johnson outflanked them Wednesday by advancing his compromise at the opening of the new Senate session before they had a chance to offer their own proposal.

As the Senate plunged into the rules scrap today, Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), the assistant majority leader, defended Johnson against charges of high-handed tactics.

Mansfield said there had been "talk of hijacking and blackjacking" because Johnson had jumped the gun on the bipartisan coalition by acting first.

Voting Still Scheduled

But Mansfield said he wanted to make it clear that Johnson's move would not prevent the Senate from voting on any and all alternate proposals for revising the Senate's anti-filibuster rule.

In the background of the filibuster fight is the simmering row over civil rights legislation and the issue of racial segregation. The long-talk device has been employed by minorities against other measures, but Southern senators fighting race law proposals have placed greatest reliance on the strategy of talking until the opposition gave up.

Seizes Initiative

Johnson used his position as majority leader to seize the initiative at the opening session of the new Senate Wednesday and won the first skirmish in the rules battle.

But Sens. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill), Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) and Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) insisted the antifilibuster coalition is far from licked. They also made clear they are banking on continued help from Vice President

15 of Victims Are Children

Oklahoma Blaze Claims 16 Persons

BOSWELL, Okla. (AP)—Fifteen children and an adult died today in a roaring fire in a four-room wooden home.

All the bodies except that of one child were piled on and around a bed in a rear room which had no outside door.

Apparently someone pushed the one child out a window but the child was dead.

The victims were Sara Gardner, 38; her 10 children; three orphaned nieces; and two visiting nephews from Oklahoma City.

All the victims were Negroes.

Booker Gardner, the father, had been away hunting.

Almost in shock and his face haggard, Gardner, a Negro, walked about aimlessly, apparently unable to comprehend immediately the disaster which struck his family.

He said that when he started home from his hunting trip before dawn this morning, "I felt sorta funny."

He received the news at the farm home of Vernon Love, who drove him to the disaster scene.

Gardner told Tony Price, reporter of the Paris (Tex.) News, that he started on a hunt about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night and hunted all night. Hunting with him was a nephew from Oklahoma City, who was visiting in the home.

Gardner is a day laborer in this southern Oklahoma town of about 1,000 population.

Constable J. B. Richburg said the roof had collapsed before firemen arrived.

Gardner said when he left for his hunting trip, two stoves, burning wood, were in use. Richburg said he believed the disaster was caused by the stoves. He said the family apparently panicked when the fire was discovered and ran into one room.

$10,000 Fire Levels House West of Upper

UPPER SANDUSKY — A family of five lost all their possessions and clothing in a $10,000 fire which completely destroyed their home Wednesday night.

The fire was at the home occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Foust and their three small children 3½ miles west of Upper Sandusky. It broke out about 9:40 p.m. Wednesday.

Mr. Foust told Wharton and Crane Township firemen that an explosion in the coal furnace of the house threw sparks onto some kindling wood nearby and the flames spread rapidly through the rest of the house.

The two-story dwelling was burned to the ground and the family was unable to save any of its possessions. The $10,000 loss was partially covered by insurance, firemen were told.

The home was owned by Charles M. Smith of near Upper Sandusky.

Bid Launched To Close GOP Senate Ranks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican senators tried today to heal the scars of their party feud by joining in a drive to win choice committee spots for both factions.

Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, leader of the old line Senate GOP forces, said he was conferring with Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas on the possibility of expanding several key committees.

This would mean increasing the size of the foreign relations, armed services, finance, commerce and banking committees, each of which now has 15 members.

Bridges had the public support of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who won the GOP floor leadership by a 20-14 vote that defeated Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, candidate of an insurgent bloc.

Joining them was Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, insurgent entry who won the post of assistant leader, or whip, by the same margin over Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota, who had been put forward by some of the conservative group.

The mercury climbed to a high 31 Wednesday, as the cold weather of Monday and Tuesday abated somewhat over Marion County. It dropped to an overnight low of 17.

Clouds prevailed for the most part this morning, and the weatherman predicted the possibility of snow today and tonight. He forecast more clouds Friday and colder weather again.

A high of 30 is expected today and the low tonight will be near 15 degrees.

Calls for Action

Johnson Attacks Lack Of 'Vigor' in GOP Rule

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders struck back with cries of "politics" today against Democratic contentions that the Eisenhower administration is lagging behind in the space age.

In the opening round of what appeared likely to become a brisling two-party fight in the new Congress, Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) and Thomas Kuchel (R-Calif) assailed the call of Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas for his party to seize national leadership from the White House.

Johnson told fellow Senate Democrats Wednesday there is a "deficit of vigor" in the Eisenhower administration. They therefore have a mandate to assume constructive leadership "beginning now, not two years hence," he added.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, described this as the opening shot in a political barrage he said he expects the Democrats to fire at President Eisenhower's fiscal and national security proposals.

President Asks Courteous Treatment

Activity Against Mikoyan Draws Warning From Ike

Eisenhower Is Disturbed At Outbursts

Soviet Deputy Is Met In Cleveland, Detroit With Demonstrations

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, noting demonstrations against Anastas Mikoyan in this country, today called for courteous treatment of the Soviet visitor.

The White House made it clear that Eisenhower is disturbed by these demonstrations against the Soviet deputy premier, now touring the United States.

In Cleveland Wednesday, Mikoyan was greeted by chanting, shouting, sign-waving demonstrators. One young woman, identified as a Hungarian refugee, was arrested for throwing a rock in the general direction of the Russian party.

Pickets on Hand

Protesting pickets also were on hand at Detroit when Mikoyan arrived there today.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, was asked at a news conference about the President's reaction to such demonstrations. Hagerty promptly pulled out a prepared statement.

Before reading it, Hagerty said he had discussed the demonstrations with Eisenhower.

"The President has asked me to say this," Hagerty went on.

"The President hopes that wherever he goes in this country, Mr. Mikoyan will be met with the courtesy Americans traditionally show visitors from abroad.

Wants Accurate Picture

"The President wants Mr. Mikoyan to see the real America, so that when he returns home he will be able to carry an accurate picture of our good manners, as well as our strength, our confidence, and our determination in the cause of freedom and peace."

Asked whether Eisenhower feels that demonstrations against Mikoyan do not reflect a true picture of America, Hagerty simply referred newsmen to the first sentence of his statement — dealing with Eisenhower's hope Americans will show Mikoyan traditional courtesy.

Hungarian Jailed In Rock-Throwing

CLEVELAND (AP) — "If you'd been in Hungary, you'd have done more than throw a little bitty rock at those Russians."

Thus plump Emma Halhai, 19-year-old Hungarian freedom fighter, defended her action Wednesday in tossing a rock toward a car escorting Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan in front of Cleveland's Terminal Tower.

Her only regret: "I'm sorry I missed."

Mrs. Halhai's was the most vigorous demonstration by any of the numerous representatives of nationalies who showed their disapproval of Mikoyan's visit here.

4 Juniors Nominated for Trip Abroad

Four Harding High School juniors today were named as local finalists in the competition to spend two months abroad this summer under the American Field Service program.

Darl Gatchell, school principal and chairman of the selection committee, said these students were chosen from among approximately 50 junior class applicants:

Jerry Keith Bechtle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl D. Bechtle of 659 Irey Ave.; Kay Judith Fortner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fortner of 721 Woodrow Ave.; Bonnie Jean Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harmon of 483 Vernon Heights Blvd., and Judith Ann Langdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Langdon of 276 Homer St.

MR. GATCHELL said the names of the four students, along with their applications and lists of qualifications, will be submitted to the American Field Service's New York office for final selection of the one student who will take part in the program.

The summer visitation is a counterpart to the winter program under which Tim Rothe of Denmark currently is studying as a senior at Harding. The local student will spend two months abroad under sponsorship of the Marion Rotary Club which will defray partial expenses of the trip.

THE PROGRAM is designed to give American students an opportunity to learn more about the people of other countries through sharing a home experience with them.

In return, the U.S. student is expected to carry the true meaning of American life to the foreign family and his new friends, thus helping to promote international goodwill.

After more than a month of deliberation over applications, the committee selected the four finalists Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Gatchell said.

Announcement of the selections, however, was withheld until the names of the students and their qualifications were presented to the Rotary Club's board of directors Wednesday night for approval.

Finalists were presented to the Rotary board on behalf of the selection committee by Wayne H. Kuhn, chairman of the club's international service committee and its American Field Service student visitation committee. Students were chosen on the basis of outstanding academic records, good health, completion of at least two years of a foreign language by June of 1959 and U.S. citizenship.

Also considered were personality traits such as maturity and adjustability. Only juniors were eligible for competition as it is felt they could most benefit from the foreign program by returning here in their senior year to share their experiences with fellow students.

MR. GATCHELL said the particular student chosen to represent Marion in the program will be assigned to a country according to his or her background, interests, language training and other considerations. The date for notification of the finalist from the New York office has not been announced.

Jerry Bechtle is a member of the high school orchestra and Starclusters Dance Band. Active in athletics, he was a member of the 1958 football team, the cross country team in 1957 and is a member of the YMCA's state championship wrestling team.

A YMCA member, he also is active in the Junior Hi-Y. He is a member of Epworth Methodist Church, of Boy Scout Post 3 and sings in the church choir.

He is serving as president of his Harding home room for the second consecutive year. He hopes to pursue a career in law or in the diplomatic service.

MISS FORTNER is vice president of the Junior Tri-Hi-Y at Harding and held the presidency of the Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y last year.

She sings in a girls' trio and in the senior choir. Her other school organizations are student council, Pep Club and home room chaplain.

A member of the First Church of the Nazarene, she teaches Sunday School there in the junior department and is publicity chairman of the Nazarene Young People's Society. She also is secretary of

Speedy Cuban Trials Slated For Thousands

Fifteen Top Officers Executed Already and More Suspects Sought

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Speedy "war crimes" trials for followers of fallen Dictator Fulgencio Batista have begun in Cuba. Fifteen military officers already have been executed.

Provisional President Manuel Urrutia said thousands of persons will be tried by revolutionary courts in "the same manner as war criminals were tried in Germany." They will be charged with crimes against the Cuban people.

Some of the accused still are being sought, Urrutia told a news conference Wednesday night. At least 1,100 persons have been re-

O'Neill Delays Action on Pay Increase Bill

Outgoing Governor Undecided; Deadline For Signing Monday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Outgoing Gov. C. William O'Neill has the option today of signing, not signing or vetoing a bill that would give pay boosts to all but two of his successor's incoming Cabinet members.

He has until noon Monday to make up his mind. That's when Democratic Gov.-elect Michael V. DiSalle takes office.

If Republican O'Neill decides not to sign the bill, then it will be left for DiSalle to handle.

Could Be Overridden

In that case, DiSalle would have to act fast. To do any good, his signature would have to go on the bill before the Cabinet members affected are sworn in. Statute forbids their pay being cut or raised during their terms of office.

If O'Neill vetoes the bill, however, it will go back to the Democratic-controlled Legislature. There the veto could be overridden—but only with Republican help.

To pass it over a veto would require at least 22 favorable votes in the Senate (where Democrats hold a 20-13 edge) and 93 in the House (where Democrats have a 78-61 margin).

Emergency Measure

If enough Republicans balked, Democrats would be unable to make the pay increases stick.

When passed Tuesday, the bill cleared the Senate 29-9, and the House 96-26.

The bill is an emergency measure, meaning it goes into effect when the governor signs it instead of after the customary 90-day waiting period.

It provides pay hikes totaling

Guard Soviet Deputy Closely

Detroit Officials Take Care To Avoid Incidents

DETROIT (AP)—Touring Soviet Dep. Premier Anastas Mikoyan arrived in Detroit today at Willow Run airport without any picket incidents.

His arrival coincided with a statement by President Eisenhower in Washington urging courteous treatment for the Russian and deploring demonstrations by pickets.

Mikoyan stepped off his commercial airplane after a flight from Cleveland.

Baltic national groups had pickets at the airport. But officials rushed the Soviet official out a rear door of the airplane hangar and drove from the airport by a round-about route.

He made a brief address at the airport commenting that Russia's automobile industry was developed with the aid of Detroit auto experts.

State police troopers lined overpasses along the Willow Run expressway to protect Mikoyan's caravan as it passed en route to the Ford Motor Co. research center in Dearborn.

The Soviet deputy premier met with some of the Midwest's wealthiest industrialists at Cleve-

'Boss' Checks To See if Staff Is on the Job

NEW YORK (AP)—When the boss yells, everybody jumps, stands at attention or, in this case, lies down.

Augustus C. Froeb, senior trustee of the Marlboro branch of the Lincoln Savings Bank of Brooklyn—75 but still sprightly—sailed into the bank Wednesday and yelled: "Everybody lie down on the floor!"

So everybody—all eight employes and four customers—lay down on the floor.

Charles Roppolo, 40, chief clerk, sounded a burglar alarm. He didn't recognize Froeb, who was wearing dark glasses.

Two weeks ago four gunmen robbed the bank of $72,000 and employes were still jittery.

As the alarm sounded, bank guard Frank Friel whipped out his revolver, three detectives in the bank vicinity dashed in, and cops came swarming into the place after the alarm sounded automatically in Brooklyn police headquarters.

By that time Paul McGuirk, the bank manager, recognized the boss and bellowed: "It's all right. It's Mr. Froeb, the trustee. He's okay."

The gun in Friel's hand wobbled. "My God, it's the boss," he muttered.

The police were stern with Froeb. Detective Sam Botwinick told him: "You're lucky you didn't get hurt."

Froeb was apologetic. "I'm sorry," he said. "I did it to see if everyone was alert. I'm sorry to have caused all this trouble."

Later, when everybody could chuckle over the incident, an unidentified bank spokesman said: "You know, the big boss is quite a guy and full of hell."

Checking on that shooting, the detectives soon found the two women had been shot inside the house. Ferguson's mother-in - law, Mrs. Gertrude Woods, 56, was dead on arrival at Miami Valley Hospital. Mrs. Martha Ferguson, 32, was wounded critically.

IGY Scientists Probe for 18 Months

Earth Gets History's Biggest Checkup

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—IGY brought the greatest physical checkup in all history.

The patient—our planet earth.

For 18 months, scientists probed and poked at the earth with diagnostic instruments ranging from thermometers to orbiting satellites.

They found high altitude titanic winds of 200 to 300 miles an hour, and places where the earth's skin or crust is only 2½ miles thick. They charted great rivers of electricity flowing through earth crust and upper air.

Last of a Series

These are but some early results. It may take 25 years or more to make the most significant diagnoses from the hundreds of millions of facts gathered.

IGY—the International Geophysical Year—is formally ended.

But its work continues in most major aspects under the title IGC-59, meaning International Geophysical Cooperation in 1959, to extend man's knowledge of his planet.

A GREAT OCEAN of air is earth's lung for human life.

Rockets indicated winds of several hundred miles per hour up where the air is terribly thin and highly electrified.

By night, earth wears a halo of dim light, the airglow, which is mostly pale green. It seems to occur in patches or cells, moving with average speed of 200 miles an hour at a 60-mile height, reports Dr. Franklin E. Roach of the National Bureau of Standards at Boulder, Colo.

Green airglow comes from oxygen atoms, with some yellow glow from sodium atoms. IGY scientists also detected unexpected atoms of lithium — presumably shot up by nuclear tests.

Radiation streaming from the sun, or from particles trapped magnetically above the earth, cause the Northern and Southern Lights, or auroras.

BUT A MAN-MADE aurora was detected with one Pacific nuclear test. Scientists theorize a blast could alter the earth's magnetic field enough to allow some trapped particles to stream down upon the earth.

Catching a great solar flare in action last Feb. 10-11, many scientists measured its varied, powerful effects upon earth.

IGY men confirmed the existence of the equatorial electrojet, a powerful electric current flowing in daylight hours only above the earth's magnetic equator. Similar currents presumably circle both Poles. They offer new insight upon solar effects on magnetic fields.

Aground, seismologists used manmade explosions and the shock signals from natural earthquakes to fill in their understanding of the earth's interior and its crust. Shocks from underground A-bomb tests offered a new tool for doing this.

SEISMIC SOUNDINGS detected the thinnest crust of the earth yet discovered under the seas — 2½ miles—and also the thickest undersea crust—9 miles deep,

The pull of gravity was measured over 75 per cent of the sea surface, and over vast distances on land—adding up ultimately to a far more accurate picture of the earth's gravity, and from that a better conception of the real shape of the earth.

The moon and the sun, through gravity, cause tides not only on the oceans, but also on the land—actually creating wavy bulges in the earth's crust ranging up to eight to 15 inches. One IGY goal was to learn how much the earth and sea tides may be in phase.

IGY is helping to satisfy man's curiosity about his world, and stimulates his curiosity the more. It promises to confer great benefits, not only material, but far beyond.

For as Harvard astronomer Dr. Fred Whipple remarked:

"Securing a better concept of what life means in the universe might lead humans to settle their differences."

Protests Rescue

CLEVELAND (AP)—"I was just minding my own business; why wouldn't they?" That was the comment from Joseph Brust, 43, after Coast Guardmen in a helicopter insisted on removing him from a point far out on the Lake Erie ice. Coast guardmen said the ice was thin and treacherous along the three-mile course of Brust's trek. Brust, who resigned last July from the Cleveland Fire Dept. said: "I only went for a walk."

Hot orange baking powder biscuits are delicious with tea.

Jobless Total Rises

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — New claims filed with the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation dropped to 18,430 at the end of last week compared with 22,069 the previous week. Continuing claims, however, rose to 113,080, compared with 104,232 the previous week. There were 2,987 new claims for 13 weeks of extended benefits, after regular benefits were exhausted, while continuing claims in this category numbered 30,833.

Sisters Suffocate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two women apparently suffocated Wednesday in a fire at their home here. The bodies of Miss Gloria Hill, an employe of a trucking firm, and her sister, Ida, were found in separate bedrooms. Firemen said the blaze may have been caused by smoking in bed.

Awaits Charges

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Jonathan J. Graham Jr., 30, whose publicized complaints about treatment in a Cuban jail brought him to the attention of Miami, Fla., authorities, is waiting to hear what charges filed in Miami "are all about." The Akron man surrendered to police Wednesday and was released on $2,000 bond. Warrants are coming from Miami by mail. Detective Capt. Carroll Cutright said he believes the warrants charge Graham with passing bad checks in Miami. A hearing has been set here for Jan. 22, when Graham will decide whether to waive extradition.

There's Still Hope for School Plan

The initial disapproval of the one-district Marion County school plan voiced at LaRue Tuesday night undoubtedly was disappointing to those people who are convinced it offers the best hope for educational advancement in this area.

Nevertheless, the meeting set up by the county board of education provided ample opportunity for full discussion of the proposal, as will the nine sessions still to be held, and that's healthy.

Any major program of this type almost inevitably stirs up initial opposition, since it is human nature to resist change and the merits of a new plan must be made crystal clear before it is generally acceptable.

Some of the objections voiced Tuesday night were quite concrete, of course, and the most difficult one to answer is the distance involved for LaRue high school students going to Ridgedale.

We do hope, however, that the program finally adopted does not involve the crossing of county lines for any of the present Marion County schools.

We are aware this step has been taken at certain places in the state with some success. But county school administration already is a somewhat disjointed affair and it seems to us the merging of a Marion County school district with one in another county would add greatly to the confusion.

Meanwhile, we still view the single school district idea in Marion County with favor and cautious optimism, and certainly hope it can be worked out to the mutual satisfaction of all 10 rural districts.

It Will Take More Than Money

If you are one of millions who believe the United States will do whatever needs to be done to spruce up its educational system because the American people are worried about it, Dr. James R. Killian Jr., special assistant to President Eisenhower for science and technology, has an unhappy message for you at the beginning of 1959.

During 1958, observes the president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the educational system showed no improvement. It fell a little further behind, instead. Its old teachers were no better than before, and it piled up a larger deficit of new teachers.

The "factor of excellence in our society," which is Dr. Killian's phrase for the value placed on learning, was not upgraded. Acquisition of gadgets continued to be more important to more Americans than acquisition of knowledge.

Schools still had to pass the hat for money and wheedle operating and building funds out of grumbling taxpayers with a passion for second - guessing everything done in the name of education. The number of advanced students deciding to become teachers continued to be dismally small — about a third the number needed to preside over the expected pupil population of future years.

Dr. Killian sees nothing to be happy about in what was expected by this time to be a major reaction from the realization that the Soviet Union was making systematic improvement in its educational system. All that has happened so far in the United States is head-clutching and hand-rubbing. Americans are worried, but they aren't really doing anything to help education; they're just worrying because the Russians are doing something.

If you're one of the worriers, what have you really done since Sputnik to upgrade the "factor of excellence in our society"?

Did Alabama Find a Secret Door?

When the New York Times was permitted, with other New York City papers, to resume publication after a long shutdown by one of its unions, Arthur Krock reported from its Washington bureau that the Constitutional crisis over racial segregation in schools apparently had passed.

This observation by one of the capital's careful reporters is based on a Supreme Court affirmation of a three-judge Federal Court decision sustaining the Alabama Pupil Placement Law.

This law, says Mr. Krock, shows Southern states how to deal with their problem of school segregation without going counter to either the spirit or the letter of equal rights laws.

As long as the law is not used to enforce racial segregation, which has been ruled unconstitutional, the U.S. Supreme Court agrees with the lower court that it "furnishes legal machinery for an orderly administration of public schools in a constitutional manner by the admission of qualified pupils upon a basis of individual merit without regard to their race or color."

In other words, the illegal thing is to separate pupils in a public school upon a basis of race and color. It is not illegal to separate pupils in a public school upon a basis of their individual merit.

In Washington, where the legalists who ponder such things are concentrated, this is being looked upon as a secret door out of a constitutional dilemma. It would give Southern states a potential means of escaping from the things they fear in desegregation without running into trouble with the Department of Justice.

It would permit, among other things, the separation of students by sex, thereby easing Southern fears about miscegenation. Students could be separated according to capability, preparation, performance — any way except race and color.

There would be tests made in the courts of all forms of separation, to determine whether they were really made on a basis of race and color and therefore unconstitutional. But as long as they had been made on the basis stated, there would be no evidence of racial discrimination.

There has been no question raised — ever — of the right of local school boards, for example, to assign pupils for educational purposes. The question that has plagued the country and created a deadlock with federal authority in part of the South is whether pupils could be separated from one another on a basis of race and color.

That is clearly unconstitutional.

Pupil placement on other grounds is clearly constitutional, on the other hand.

The Supreme Court action on Nov. 24 was largely overlooked at the time because it was Thanksgiving week, there had been no discussion in advance and the order sustaining the lower court was unsigned. As Mr. Krock has indicated from his vantage point in Washington, the desegregation fight may be over.

Abreast in the Wild Blue Yonder

It has been pointed out so patiently by so many experts that the real issue in the airlines dispute is who will sit in the cockpits of the jet transports that no one doubts their word. They must know what they are talking about.

But the way that issue is being settled is a stiff challenge to credulity.

Instead of two pilots and a flight engineer, which is what the flight engineers' union demanded, or three pilots, which is what the pilots' union wanted, the cockpits will be jammed to overflowing with three pilots and a flight engineer.

If King Solomon had followed this rule in his famous case, he would have sent out for an additional baby and threatened to split the difference four ways.

The mental image of the three pilots and the flight engineer sitting four abreast in the cockpit of a jet airplane is bright and persuasive. The creative artists of Madison Avenue must be licking their imaginative chops over it.

All four will be handsome, of course—the clean-cut type, with crisp uniforms and blue eyes crinkled at the corners. There will be the senior pilot, the co-pilot and the co-pilot's co-pilot. "The other gentlemen is Mister Abernathy, our flight engineer. He listens for signs of trouble."

But in due course, will not Mister Abernathy, himself, need a co-listener and a co-listener for the co-listener? There could be two rows of seats in the cockpit, if necessary. Madison Avenue could really do something in a layout with six models showing the spirit of the jet age.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

(Being a bad dream of possible situations, if any police department, anywhere, became unionized by Jimmy Hoffa with strike power.)

Hark to the story of Citizen Joe,
A sad, drab tale of bitter woe:
By robbers he was set upon
Within his home, and left far-gone;
He staggered to the telephone,
And central heard the poor guy moan,
"Police! Police!" To which she said,
"Please ask for someone else instead."

II

"I'm all beat up," his cry came through,
"Oh, get a cop and maybe two";
I'd love to," came the answer clear
"If they're available, old dear,
But I've a long, thick waiting list
Of folks who need a cop's 'assist';
A teamster I can give to you,
And rather think he'll have to do."

III

"A teamster!" cried the battered guy,
"I have no shipment. Tell me why?
My drastic need is for a cop
Before beyond all help I flop."

The girl replied "Don't be absurd;
The cops are out; I thought you'd heard;
Assistance no one can assign . . .
HELP CANNOT CROSS A PICKET LINE."

L'ENVOI

Poor battered Joe gave up the ghost;
To pearly gates he seemed to coast;
"It's one place" he philosophized
"That up to now ain't Hoffanized."

Under the pattern of some folks in the Hoffa union would it be possible to call a unionized police department, ask "Can I get a policeman? and be told "I decline to answer"?

Archibald MacLeish's new drama "J.B." may start a trend toward using initals instead of full titles. Missus just asked if we could get tickets to "S.W.," "F.D.S.," and "T.G." She meant Suzie Wong," Flower Drum Song" and 'The Gazebo." (We got her a pair for "T.M.G.R.," meaning "The Marriage-Go-Round.")

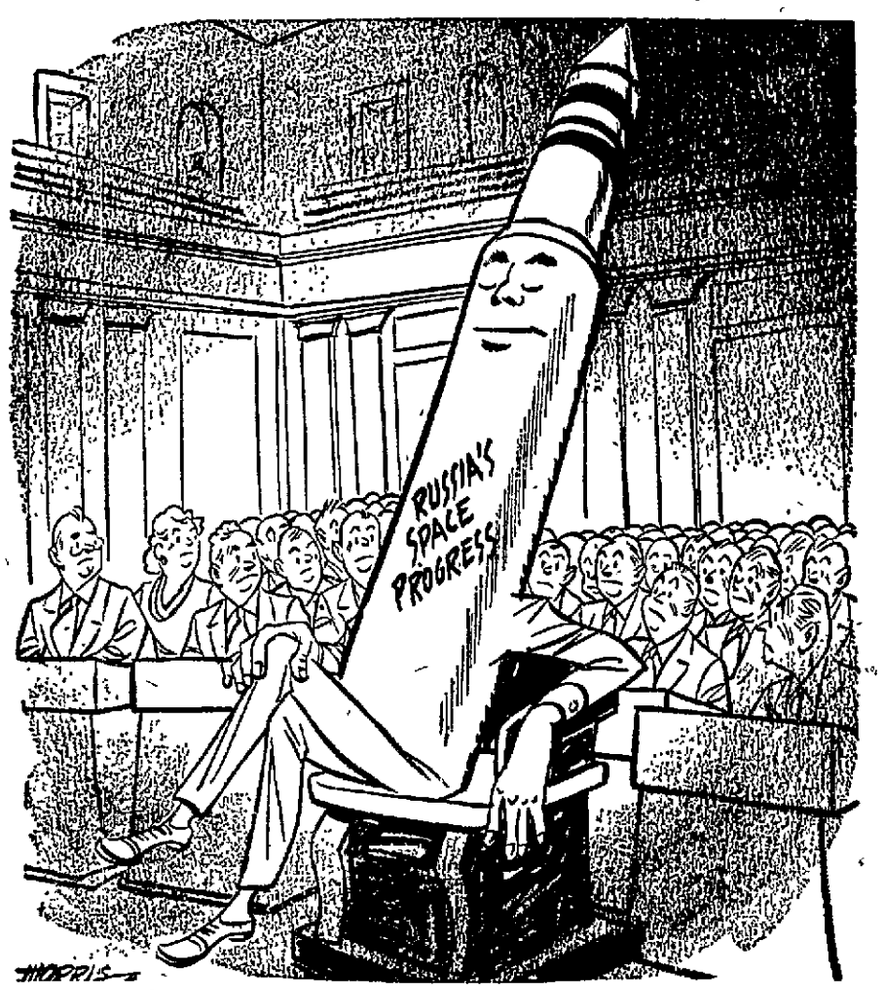
Strong Influence in New Congress



Communists in Cuba

By David Lawrence

There is no question about the fact that the Communists have gotten a toe hold in Cuba. They have a strategic position in the labor movement there and are taking advantage of the disturbed conditions, just as they have in other Latin American countries.

Lawrence

The Communists do not always appear in the open — it is being denied, for instance, that they are in any way responsible for the movement which led to Fidel Castro's triumph. But they somehow manage to affiliate with the radical side and by infiltration influence the course of events.

Communist activity has lately been noticeable, too, in Venezuela, where American oil companies now are being harassed as the government there is prodded by the radicals.

What should the policy of the United States be toward the Central and South American governments that are responsive to Communist influence? To withhold recognition or to withdraw it when once granted means an intensification of the friction.

The strategy used in the Middle East — to try, by getting inside a country, to checkmate Communist tactics — may also be feasible in this hemisphere. No line of policy, however, can be laid out with exactness, as each case has its own special circumstances.

THERE IS PARTICULAR significance, therefore, in the comprehensive report just filed with President Eisenhower by Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University.

In the last few years the President's brother has been giving a lot of time, without compensation, to government missions studying the Latin American problem. He has not only made official visits to many countries but has participated in lengthy conferences with government officials here. He says in his report:

"I believe the suggestion of Vice President Nixon is sound and would be applauded by Latin America itself — that we have an 'abrazo' (embrace) for Democratic leaders and a formal handshake for dictators. Trivial as they may sound, I recommend that it be our official policy in relations with Latin American leaders and nations.

"We have made some honest mistakes in our dealings with dictators. For example, we decorated several of them. Most Latin American nations did the same, and in grander style. Whatever reason impelled them and us to take those actions, I think, in retrospect, we were wrong.

"I recommend that we refrain from granting special recognition to a Latin American dictator, regardless of the temporary advantage that might seem to be promised by such an act.

"NON-RECOGNITION and noncooperation would not help another nation achieve democracy. Most peoples want freedom, though many have never experienced it. By cooperating with them, even through dictators — by keeping open the lines of communication— one may hope that a growing understanding of the strength, glory, and basic morality of democracy will enable the people of a harshly ruled country to achieve and maintain democratic institutions of their own design.

"We must be careful in deciding which leader deserves a mere handshake and which an 'abrazo.'

"In Latin America one finds widely varying degrees of freedom. At least one nation which today is labeled by some a 'dictatorship' has greater freedom of the press, of assembly, of speech, of worship and of reserach and teaching, than do several others which are generally conceived to be democratic.

"An important consideration, it seems to me, is the direction a nation is taking.

"Throughout Latin America, a strong and irresistible trend toward freedom and democracy is evident. We should watch this trend in each country, and encourage it in any way that may be appropriate, without violating the fundamental policy of nonintervention."

The foregoing excerpt is an illustration of the complexities encountered in trying to encourage the cause of freedom without antagonizing a dictator who can harass American companies that have invested many millions in his country. If a "dictator" doesn't receive the "special decorations" which he covets so as to enhance his standing in his own country, he gets miffed, and diplomacy finds itself with vexatious problems.

Yet it is important not to become too fraternal with the dictators and this could conceivably apply also to "Summit" conferences with Khrushchev.

Looking back now, the Geneva Conference of 1955 was a mistake, as it tended to discourage the champions of freedom in the captive countries.

"De facto" recognition may seem "practical" from a material viewpoint but in the long run America's moral force can best be exerted by withholding full recogition from any government until there has been a free election and some form of constitutional administration has been firmly established.

Justice Done

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Justice has been done at last to several hundred thousand of nature's noblemen in America.

They are the victims of gout.

HAL BOYLE

These men share a recurrent agony that in the past has afflicted such giants of mankind as Alexander the Great, Isaac Newton, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Goethe, Francis Bacon, Guy de Maupassant and Benjamin Franklin.

The pangs of gout are excruciating. But almost as hard for its victim to bear are the ridicule and lack of sympathy he receives from his so-called friends. They are sure his ailment is a penalty sent from heaven to punish him for living too fast and too loose.

This big lie is struck down formally in a pamphlet "About Gout."

"IT HAS BEEN common belief for centuries that gout was caused by high living—eating rich foods and drinking too much of alcoholic beverages," says the pamphlet. "We now know that 'high living' does not cause gout."

"Gout is a defect in the body's chemistry which frequently leads to an arthritic condition," says the pamphlet. "Gout is never contagious but probably hereditary.

"This metabolic abnormality causes an increase in the amounts of uric acid in the blood and tissues."

The uric acid excess, accumulating in crystalline deposits in cartilage, usually around bone joints, sets up the painful irritation known as gout.

GOUT IS PERHAPS as old as mankind itself, and was known to Hippocrates, the father of medicine, four centuries before Christ.

Gout remains one of the most masculine of ailments. No eunuchs and comparatively few women ever get it.

The fact so many famous men were gout sufferers led one 19th century observer to write that the disease is "peculiarly incidental to men of cultivated mind and intellectual distinction." The pamphlet is less flattering: "There is, unfortunately, no modern medical evidence to support this statement."

Gout remains largely a medical mystery. Obesity seems to make it worse. No one diet seems to control it, but its victims generally are advised to avoid foods such as sweetbreads, anchovies, sardines, liver, kidney, brains and meat extracts.

When a man gets an attack, he may wish he'd die—but he won't.

Labor Briefs Mikoyan

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

American labor leaders and Anastas I. Mikoyan had lunch and a hot discussion.

But the Soviet deputy premier didn't reveal any secrets while he was the guest of the unionists.

They later gave their account of what happened in a memorandum prepared as a record of the conversation.

One notable stay-away was AFL-CIO President George Meany. But James B. Carey, a long-time fighter against Communists in American unions, was there. He said he thought a frank talk with Mikoyan might have done some good, couldn't do harm.

BESIDES CAREY, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, others present included Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, and Joseph A. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers of America.

Carey, Reuther and Beirne are also vice presidents of the AFL-CIO.

In part, this was the account of what happened:

Carey blamed the Soviets for trying after the war to dominate the World Federation of Trade Unions, when American unionists got fed up and walked out.

Mikoyan admitted the Soviet trade union movement had made a mistake but said the Americans had, too, in that post-war period. And he added: Two neighbors who had made a mistake shouldn't let a mistake dominate their future.

REUTHER criticized the Soviet propaganda line that pictures American workers as wage slaves. Carey went into detail on the evolutionary improvements in the American labor movement since Mikoyan was here in the 1930s.

Mikoyan said Reuther was wrong, that the Soviets recognized the wealth and high standard of living of the American Workers and constantly used this as an incentive and example to the Soviet workers to improve their production.

The labor leaders not only supported this country's foreign policy but said the average American worker did, too.

Beirne chimed in: He said it was impossible to develop faith and trust in Soviet talk about the self-determination of peoples after what the Soviets did to the workers of Hungary.

And Beirne asked: Would the Soviet Union guarantee absolute freedom of movement to any trade union delegation visiting that country? Would such a delegation be permitted to visit prisons and labor camps and talk to workers on the job at home?

Mikoyan denied there were labor camps; guaranteed that an American trade union delegation visiting the Soviet Union would have complete freedom, including freedom to visit prisons; and refused to discuss Hungary on the ground it would take too long.

BUT WHEN the unionists criticized Soviet policy — particularly they accused the Kremlin of stimulating crises around the world—Mikoyan said the Americans were prejudiced and didn't know the facts of Soviet policy.

The unionists attacked Soviet policy on Berlin, which the Soviets want left defenseless in the middle of Communist East Germany —but Mikoyan responded with this proposal:

That Berlin be made a free city —with free access to it from East and West—and its freedom guaranteed by an international commission, with all countries removing their troops. This has been pretty much the Soviet line.

REUTHER argued, as the State Department does, that Berlin is part and parcel of Germany and that the two Germanys should be reunited in free elections, which is what the Soviets don't want.

So, while no problems were solved, the memorandum said the most important result of the luncheon was to show the unity of American trade unionists on Berlin and a unified Germany.

The argument being used in New York City to legalize betting away from the tracks on horse races is that it cannot be stopped anyway and the only result of trying to stop it is to corrupt the police force, so why not let the city collect the revenue and keep the police force honest. Any questions?

It appears to be increasingly plain that nothing short of a complete stop and a fresh start is going to stop some of the nonsense being inflicted on enterprises by employes who take the attitude they own their jobs, instead of holding a lease on them.

10 YEARS AGO — Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner, announced that standard grade "A" milk regulations would become effective Jan. 15. This action, taken by the City Health Board, meant that all Marion dairies would comply with nationally approved standards of milk production as laid down by the U.S. Public Health Service.

Ohio cities and counties collected about $25,000,000 more from property taxes in 1948 than the year before, the state commissioner of taxation reported.

People We're Proud To Know

Rev. J. B. Holloway

By ELAINE DAYTON

The Rev. Judson Benjamin Holloway of 216 S. Vine St., pastor, doctor of divinity, gentleman of many abilities and activities, and possessor of a certain charm traceable to his native southland, is a "Marionite by adoption" who has made considerable impression on this city during the 17 years of his residency here.

He has "inherited" the distinction of being minister of the oldest church in Marion, a church established on land set aside by Eber Baker, Marion's founder, in 1824. His record has proved him a worthy successor to a line of pastors which has kept Trinity Baptist Church a live and growing body of church members through the years.

Blessed with a warmth and friendliness of personality, "J.B." is regarded with real affection by not only his own parishioners but by Marion residents generally.

Ably assisting him in his career is his wife, the former Miss Doris Stansberry of Granville, whom he married May 17, 1953. She is a former associate director of Christian education for the Ohio Baptist Convention and she is a capable musician. Her home originally was at Cincinnati.

The minister, born in Alabama, became an Ohioan early in his pastoral career and he served churches in both Cincinnati and Ironton before coming to Marion.

DURING HIS student ministry he resided in Tennessee and Kentucky.

In the latter state, at Louisville, his older son and his daughter were born. The younger son, though a native of Cincinnati, chose to accept his first ministerial position in Alabama. All three were graduated from high school here. A niece, Miss Mary Leonard, who kept house at the parsonage here from January 1952 until her graduation from Harding High School in 1953, is now Mrs. James Stewart, a Florida housewife.

The older son, Arthur Holloway, a World War II flying ace, is now principal of East Lake Junior High School near Cleveland. He is a resident of Willoughby. He is married to a Marion girl, the former Miss Ruth McClure.

The daughter, June, is the wife of the Rev. Harold G. Sanders, pastor at First Baptist Church in Tallahassee, Fla., who was a U.S. Navy chaplain of World War II.

The younger son, the Rev. Ronald Holloway, is minister of education at Forest Park Baptist Church in Montgomery, Ala. There are nine grandchildren, four in Willoughby, four in Tallahassee and the youngest in Montgomery is a six-month-old boy born July 24.

Married 28 years to Thelma Shelton Holloway, the Marion minister found himself alone when her death occurred seven years ago. Tirelessly during their marriage she constructed with her husband the foundations of a good parsonage home and fulfilled well the duties of a minister's wife in the church and the community. She suffered a heart attack at home after returning on Thanksgiving Day, 1951, from the old Marion City Hospital where she had undergone a major operation. She was buried at Coke, Va., her ancestral home.

A Charleston, S.C., resident at the time of her marriage to the Rev. Mr. Holloway in November, 1923, she attended classes with him later when they moved from Nashville, Tenn., to Kentucky and he enrolled in Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville.

FROM A FARM family background the future minister, one of four children, was quite interested in a business career when he was graduated from high school at Opp, Ala. He ventured to Virginia where he took a commercial course at Lynchburg. He was employed by the Wright Coal and Coke Co., a Wright, W. Va., mining concern at the time of enlisting in service in World War I. When he received his discharge from military duty he worked his way through Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Va., then went to Vanderbilt for his graduate work.

Beneath the surface of preparation for a career in the secular world a compulsive idea that the church was calling for his talents won out at last. His final decision as to vocation came as the result of YMCA conference experiences.

Although his interests center in his responsibilities to the congregation of more than 1,050 members which he serves as minister, the Trinity Church pastor has demonstrated numerous times his concern for the welfare of the community, the nation and the world as well.

His sense of dedication to serving the needs of his fellowmen, not simply those reached through the church alone, together with a high sense of patriotism led him to voluntary participation not only in World War I as a soldier but as a chaplain in World War II.

His chaplaincy was served with the U.S. Navy in which he was commissioned in July, 1943. He had come to Marion in February the year before and while on duty for his country he was given a leave of absence by the congregation here while interim pastors filled the Trinity Church pulpit.

At Okinawa, he and men on a troop transport nearly lost their lives when a Japanese suicide bomber crashed onto the vessel's bridge and set the ship afire.

AS A COUNSELOR to service men he spent long hours and was on call day and night to help with personal problems, correspond with parents, hold services of worship and fulfill the many other duties he had to do. One of the most interesting incidents was his performance of a prison camp wedding on the Pacific island where he was stationed. The ceremony was read for an Okinawan girl and a Japanese soldier-prisoner behind a barbed wire enclosure. An English-Japanese interpreter assisted. One of the witnesses was the mayor of the island town. A copy of the marriage certificate is now among the minister's mementoes.

He is a past chaplain of Bird-McGinnis Post 162, American Legion, in Marion and he has held membership in a World War I VFW post.

Young people have been always to him a special challenge and a "hobby" and he has spent his summers for 30 years in youth camp counseling. For a year previous to entering the ministry he taught school.

Wherever he has been pastor he has been active also in interdenominational work. He is a past president of the Marion County Ministerial Association, has served on various association committees and has worked on committees of the Kiwanis Club and the Red Cross board. He has had responsibilities in his denomination on a state level and in recognition of the worth of his endeavors he was honored some time ago by Rio Grande College at Rio Grande, O., a Baptist school, with a doctor of divinity degree.

What time he has for recreation he spends in golfing or, in the fall, in hunting. At that season it is not unusual to find an aggregation of hunter friends gathered here filling up beds and boarding at the parsonage.

Whenever they can get away, he and Mrs. Holloway enjoy visiting their family.

Both the pastor's brother and married sister are parents of five children each. The other sister is employed by the government in the Panama Canal Zone.

During the Holloway administration, Trinity officials have acquired a new parsonage for the minister at the S. Vine St. address and have added to the church a $200,000 educational wing. The total budget for all giving has grown from $10,000 to $60,000 a year under his leadership and the number of members has increased significantly.

Ruled Insane

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Freda Cooper, 40, charged with first degree murder in the death of her 14-year-old daughter, has been ruled insane and ordered committed to Lima State Hospital until her sanity is restored. Everybody Reads The Star

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: What can I do about a 35-year-old baby who also happens to be my husband? Whenever we have an argument, he runs to the telephone and calls up his mother.

He tells her everything that was said and adds so many extra details I can hardly recognize the fight.

Last night was absolutely the limit. When he started to repeat some half-baked things I never said, I grabbed the phone from him to tell his mother my side. He yelled, "Now she's after me again!" and slammed down the receiver. He made me sound like a crazy woman.

Please give me some advice. I am ready to strangle him with the telephone cord.—LOTTIE.

Dear Lottie: There's nothing you can do about a 35-year-old baby who has to ring up Mama and report on the family fights. He needs professional help to unwind from Mom.

He phones her in your presence to irritate you, so tune him out completely and pay no attention. Perhaps when he fails to get the expected reaction, he'll cut it out. Too bad this little boy grew tall—and not up—isn't it?

Constant Chaperon

Dear Ann Landers: I've been taking out a very nice woman for several months. She is 34 and has never been married.

I would like to marry this woman but I can't get her alone long enough to discuss anything of a serious nature. She has an 11-year-old nephew who spends every weekend with her. She brings this boy along no matter where we go.

I'm a salesman and out of the city Monday through Thursday. The only nights I can see her are Friday and Saturday. She tells me she owes it to her sister to be kind to the boy. (The sister is in a mental institution.)

Don't you feel we should have some time alone together? I hate to appear jealous of the child but I resent this. The woman is wonderful and I'm very fond of her. What do you suggest?—GEORGE.

Don't look now, but you've got an 11-year-old chaperon. This woman drags the boy along because she doesn't want to talk about anything serious. If she were interested in orange blossoms, you wouldn't be breaking your head figuring ways to get her alone.

If you're marriage - minded, don't waste any more time on this gleesome threesome.

Talk Is Not Cheap

Dear Ann: My wife's younger sister visited with us last month for a few days. She's 18 years old and a senior in high school.

We tried to make her feel at home but I think we overdid it. The telephone bill arrived a few days ago and there were three long-distance calls which came to a total of $11.70.

There's no question but what these calls were placed by our guest because no one in our family made them. They were put through on the dates when she was visiting in our home.

We don't want to get the girl in bad with her parents by sending the bill to them but I'll be cowlicked if I'll pay it. How shall we handle this?—R.L.

The girl showed a shocking lack of integrity and should be called on it. Drop her a line and tell her she forgot to mention the long-distance calls she made on your phone. Ask how she intends to pay for them. If she doesn't respond properly, send the bill to her parents. There's more involved here than $11.70.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Marion Star enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Need for Truth in Advertising Stressed by Sales-Ad Speaker

Misleading advertising claims and deceptive retail pricing practices were the subject of a talk titled "Are There Termites in Your Business?" delivered Wednesday at the noon meeting of the Marion Sales-Ad Club at Hotel Harding.

The speaker was John L. O'Brien, president of the Akron Better Business Bureau since 1946, and for the last 10 years a lecturer on business ethics at Kent State University. The meeting was attended by 55 club members and 25 guests.

Truth in advertising, plus self-regulation of advertising, are the primary objectives of Better Business Bureaus, the speaker said, pointing out that the bureaus are an offspring of local advertising clubs.

Displays Samples

"When misleading advertising claims are made in large communities, retailers in smaller neighboring cities find it difficult to compete, and therefore often operate at a distinct disadvantage," Mr. O'Brien said. Correction frequently lags in larger areas, because business contacts are not as close, nor social pressures leading to self-regulations as great as they are in cities the size of Marion."

To show how false advertising undermines public confidence in all advertising and frequently results in an avalanche of conflicting terms and claism, Mr. O'Brien displayed some examples of "misleading" advertising investigated by the Akron Better Business Bureau in the last few years.

The samples ranged from so-called "bait advertising" for storm windows, to deceptive comparative price claims in retail ads for furniture, bedding, jewelry, appliances and automobile tires. Also featured were "misleading" advertising claims for such products as battery additives, and reducing and rejuvenation remedies. According to Mr. O'Brien, a tremendous aid to the correction of current advertising abuses are a series of recently published Federal Trade Commission guides which spell out the FTC's exact position regarding deceptive price advertising.

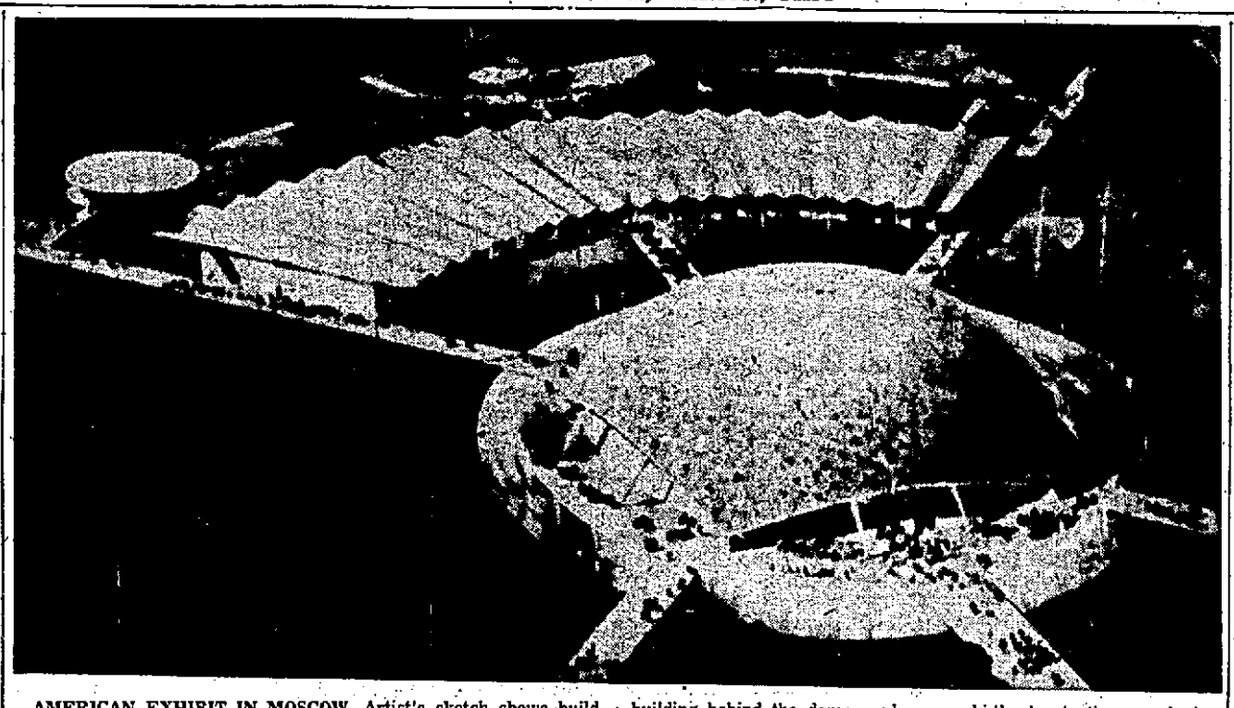
"Since these guides were published, outlining rules for advertisers to follow "most retailers are bending over backwards to avoid false and misleading claims," he said.

Commission Needs Help

"Advertising rules covered by the FTC guides," he said, "refer particularly to 'amazing bargain' offers, and 'unbelievable value' claims—not based on fact." While the FTC has jurisdiction only over those firms which do business in interstate commerce, the commission has indicated that it intends to step up activity in this field, and also has called upon Better Business Bureaus and other voluntary civic groups to assist in obtaining voluntary compliance to these rules, the speaker said.

Commenting on the very favorable reception given Mr. O'Brien's talk by local advertising people and retailers, Jack Lautenslager, secretary - treasurer of the club said, "The Marion Sales-Ad Club and the Marion Chamber of Commerce consider it one of their chief civic obligations to present interesting and informative programs of this type for the benefit of members of the Marion business community."

Following the talk on advertising ethics, new membership rosters were distributed and a date for the Sales-Ad Club's annual winter party was announced by Jack Davis, club president. The party will be held Saturday, Feb. 7, at the Marion Fish and Game Club, located north of the city on Rt. 23.



AMERICAN EXHIBIT IN MOSCOW. Artist's sketch shows buildings and landscapes planned for the six-week American National Exhibition to be held in Moscow's Sokolniki Park next summer. In the foreground is the science building, housed in a Kaiser aluminum geodesic dome. Cultural technological exhibits will occupy fan-like building behind the dome, and an amphi-theater to the rear is for performing arts. The Soviets have agreed to purchase the buildings after the exhibition, which is being held under terms of a reciprocal agreement which permits Soviets to stage a scientific and cultural exhibit in the New York Coliseum. 535 on Christmas List Cared for by Gifts of Marionites

Combined efforts of the Junior Service Guild and Salvation Army brought Christmas remembrances to 535 individuals or families in the city and county during December, officials of the two organizations reported today.

Of the 535 cases on file at the Guild Clearinghouse, 361 were taken by industrial companies, business firms, fraternal organizations and church groups. Individuals stepped in to bring Christmas into the lives of the remaining persons on the list.

Administering to the needs of the community's unfortunates, the Salvation Army accelerated its program during the holidays to provide several special services.

Seventy baskets of food were distributed and 58 cash orders were given for groceries. In addition, 1,000 sunshine baskets found their way to the aged, residents of the Children's Home, County Home, rest homes and patients at Marion General Hospital.

Overseas boxes went to 35 county men in the Armed Forces and 300 special calendars were provided for women at hte Marysville Reformatory.

New and used toys for youngsters under 12 were presented on the eve of the holiday to nearly 300 families and clothing found its way into some 100 homes.

At the request of Community Foundation, $200 was expended on emergency relief to individuals and families in need.

Leaders of the two organizations reported that all this help for the needy would not have been possible without a generous community response. They gratefully acknowledged the support also of staff members of the public agencies.

Larger School Consolidation May Be Formed in Crawford

BUCYRUS—A move for the addition of the Whetstone School District to the newly-merged North Robinson-Jefferson School District was gaining favor today following a meeting of the three boards this week at the North Robinson School.

Board members from all three districts reported that the three-school merger plan appeared to be favored by most residents of the districts.

All residents of the North Robinson and Jefferson School Districts will be asked to express their views on the inclusion of Whetstone in the disfrict while petitions to be circulated in the Whetstone district would result in the issue being placed on the ballot next November if enough signatures are obtained.

Similar petitions were circulated last year among Jefferson residents, who approved the merger with the North Robinson district at the Nov. 4 election.

Recommendation was made last month by the state education department that the high school at Whetstone be discontinued following an inspection of the school's facilities. The high school has been operating on a temporary charter since January, 1952.

Current planning is for Whetstone to send its 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grade students to North Robinson next fall with an additional high school building to be built eventually south of the North Robinson building.

The proposed new high school building would be planned for a capacity of 400 students. Current total high school enrollment of the three districts is about 250.

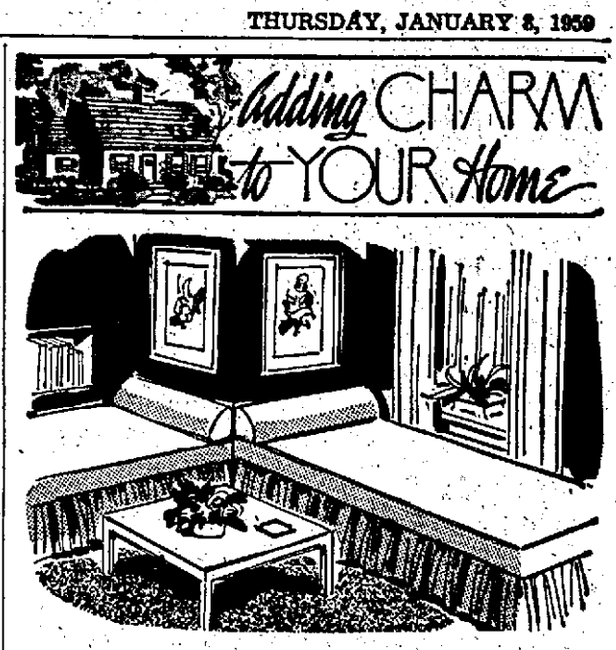
Adding CHARM to YOUR Home



CORNER COMFORT

What is the most important factor in creating an attractive home? Offhand, we'd say originality. How is it achieved? By refusing to adhere to a set pattern, and by giving your imagination full sway.

When you take a dwelling — large or small — and infuse it with your concepts of comfort and beauty, endow it with the spirit of your own personality, the result is, happily, your home. You will enjoy expressing yourself in creating it, and you will find pleasure and satisfaction in living in it.

Achieving the desired effect isn't always easy. Just about every room presents a decorating problem. Meeting this challenge is stimulating, and the solution often results in the distinguishing mark that makes the room an artful expression of your originality and charm.

An architectural defect has been turned into a decorating asset in the bedroom sketched above. The beds have been arranged around a jutting corner. The coffee table, possible because of this arrangement, gives the room a sitting-room look. Chest-desk-and-shelf combination (not shown) make this room an ideal study spot as well as a place for pleasant relaxation.

A bedroom that doubles as a sitting room gives you lots of added advantages. A pair of box springs and mattresses fits ideally into this type of room — offers you an oppotrunity for many interesting arrangements.

Martin Comments on Ouster

20-Year Veteran House Leader Defends Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—"My policy was persuasion," Rep. Joseph William Martin Jr. told newsmen after the Republican caucus had ousted him Tuesday as party leader in the House.

In that phrase, he was saying a great deal about his defeat by hard driving Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana — and about Joe Martin, the Massachusetts Yankee who headed House Republicans for 20 years.

The 74-year-old Martin conceded ruefully his Republican opponents jumped on him because "I didn't give the Democrats hell enough." But he said he had to angle for Democratic votes for Republican administration policies.

'More Gusto Than Skill'

Those who pressed to replace Martin as floor leader might contend he had had more gusto than skill in debate.

Millions of television-watching Americans remember how Martin, presiding over the 1956 Republican convention, was taken aback by a high-spirited delegate's nomination of the mythical Joe Smith for vice president.

"Take your Joe Smith and get out of here," was the best Martin could think to say.

He had been a Republican officeholder and hardworking party man for almost a half-century. It was obvious his first defeat deeply grieved him.

Still Plenty To Do

Martin said he'd have plenty to do as representative of the 14th Massachusetts District, publisher of the Evening Chronicle of North Attleboro, his birthplace, and the Franklin (Mass.) Sentinel.

A bachelor, Martin was born Nov. 3, 1884. He went into newspapering immediately on graduation from the North Attleboro public schools and soon entered politics, winning a seat in the State House of Representatives in 1912.

He was elected to Congress in 1924 and regularly thereafter. He presided over every Republican national convention beginning in 1940. For two years starting in 1940 he was chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Martin became Republican House leader in 1939. By virtue of his leadership, he was twice speaker of the House — when the Republicans controlled it in 1947-48 and 1953-54.

Martin Views His Ouster as Nixon's Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon is getting the credit or blame—whether he deserves either or not — for being the directing influence behind some changes in the Republican party.

Rep. Joseph Martin of Massachusetts, ousted Tuesday as House minority leader, pointed a finger in Nixon's direction in accounting for his defeat by Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Asked if the vice president had a hand in bringing about his overthrow, Martin replied, "All I know is that his people were against me—actively against me."

Martin went on to say that some White House aides had met a month ago with Halleck and implied they were against his reelection because "I was a little more independent than I should be—of them."

Halleck denied any White House intervention. There was no comment from Nixon.

Old Skeleton

BRYANSTON, England (AP) — A skeleton found on the site of a new school in this Dorset village will be sent to the British Museum in London. It has been indentified as that of a Roman or early Briton

Baptists Boost Church Construction Programs

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Something of a building boom is on for Baptists, reports reaching church headquarters here show.

In Jacksonville, Fla., the state Baptist convention awarded a contract for a new $500,000 office building. In Montgomery, Ala., the state convention set aside $277,250 as the start of a fund for a new $700,000 headquarters building. In Dallas, a new $3,500,000 Southern Baptist Relief and Annuity Board building was nearly completed.

Kummuter's Klub

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP)—Commuting students at Southern Illinois University decided to name their club "KKK."

It doesn't mean Ku Klux Klan—it's "Kampus Kommuter's Klub."

The 40 members indicated it would have a Greek organization significance to match fraternity and sorority activities on campus.

Moral Climate Differs In Japan, Pastor Says

TACHIKAWA, Japan (AP) — A Lutheran pastor from Lakewood, Ohio, the Rev. George P. Vojtko, made this comment on his new job as director of a Lutheran center for service men here:

"The moral climate. . .is quite a bit different than it is at home. Every other building in this city of some 65,000 is either a bar or dive. . .You walk down the street and they just about drag you in."

When buying frozen broccoli you'll probably get a larger proportion of the head in a package of "Chopped broccoli spears" than in one marked "Chopped broccoli."

Finnegan Reviews Strike Outlook

Bitter Fights During '59 Seen by Top Mediator

By VICTOR RIESEL

There is only one man in the United States across whose desk flash the first faint angry words of all labor conflicts. Many of these later come roaring into the headlines by shutting down huge plants or vast national industries. That man is Joseph Finnegan, chief of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service which annually settles or prevents thousands of strikes. For a view of things to come, this column asked the following questions of Mr. Finnegan, because his guesses are the most educated in the land:

VICTOR RIESEL

Q. What do you think will be some of the "sticky" issues in 1959?

A. There are over 150 major collective bargaining agreements covering upwards of 4½ million workers that will come up for negotiation in 1959. I have no way of predicting which one is going to be the most troublesome, because labor relations seldom follow a set script.

Without even dusting off my crystal ball, I think it is safe to say that a troublesome rumble is in prospect in the oil industry in the very near future. The union is asking for a 25-cent package deal and management has taken the position that this is unwarranted and inflationary.

It has indicated that it will strenuously resist the union demands. More intense feeling is building up in these negotiations than has been characteristic in the past several years and things could get explosive.

THE STEEL INDUSTRY, of course, has always been somewhat of a wage-pattern setter and it is the big unknown factor for 1959. Some tough talk has been coming out of the Steel Workers Union home office.

And many spokesmen for the steel industry have indicated that the industry is tired of being accused of granting inflationary wage increases and this year is willing to lock horns with the steel union.

It must be remembered that the political and industrial setting was different when the 1956 steel contract was negotiated and this enhances the possibility of a real Donnybrook in the 1959 steel negotiations.

There are, however, some pretty sophisticated bargainers on both sides and public statements don't necessarily have much connection with actual bargaining attitudes when the chips are down.

Problems affecting seniority, automation, plant relocation, size of work crews, and the like will probably mark the 1959 bargaining picture. The recent widely publicized opposition of the International Longshoremen's Association (IND) to automation in shiploading and unloading is a sign of things to come.

That contract, of course, will be "up for grabs" next September.

Remember, too, that historically the shipping industry and the longshoremen have bargained through big, unwieldy groups and this will not make the task of mediating the longshore situation any easier.

Certain trade union alliances could also complicate the longshore negotiations, particularly as they relate to other aspects of the transportation field.

Q. Do you see a tougher bargaining between labor and management, and, if so, why?

A. Yes, I do. I think this tougher bargaining to which you refer has been gradually building up over the last couple of years.

IN THE CASE of industry representatives there has been a growing feeling that profits are not as high as the productivity factor indicates they should be. The toughening up process has been accelerated somewhat by some developments during the recent recession.

During this period of lower sales, management examined many of its production methods, standards and processes and found them to be outdated and uneconomic. By introducing new methods and tightening up on incentive standards and the like, management found it could compensate in a measure for lower sales.

Many management representatives concluded that the way to improve profits was not merely by playing for increased sales but by getting the production to which they felt they were entitled from the working force.

A concomitant of this effort was a drive by management to assert a firmer control of discipline and authority in order to implement these production changes. I think, too, in some industries there is a mounting resistance to company-wide bargaining on the theory that geographical wage differentials should be recognized by unions rather than putting a flat price tag on a particular job wherever performed.

On the labor side, too, there has been mounting pressure attributable in some measure to rank-and-file pressure on labor leaders to get money increases to offset the increase in the cost of living.

TECHNOLOGICAL advances in industry are creating a growing demand on the part of rank-and-file workers for greater job security and better fringe benefits.

These are only a few of the factors which have contributed to a tougher bargaining attitude on both sides of the collective bargaining table.

From where I sit, there appears to be a good likelihood of a more active collective bargaining scene than we saw during the past year.

Q. Tell us something about the problems the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service has run into in connection with the construction of guided missile bases, such as Cape Canaveral and other launching sites.

A. There has been a rash of jurisdictional squabbles from time to time but by and large—knock on wood—there have been no major problems in this field. Sure, there have been some troublesome "dust ups" due to refusal of dues-paying union men to work alongside employes of non-union contractors.

There have been divergent philosophies between the U.S. Army Engineer Corps and the Army Air Force with regard to contract letting which has been troublesome but so far our mediators, with the assistance of the Air Force and Engineers labor liaison representatives, have been able to keep things under control.

We have set up machinery within the Mediation Service to follow and quickly take action when we spot situations that call for actual or preventive mediation.

Federal mediators keep close tabs on developments at all of the bases scattered throughout the country and report directly to me when they detect a situation that might blow up with resultant interruptions of America's defense effort.

DeGaulle Installed as President of France's Fifth Republic

Wields Most Power Since Napoleon III

Names Michel Debre As Premier To Share His Executive Duties

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle became today the first President of the Fifth French Republic and appointed Michel Debre as Premier.

In taking the oath of office, De Gaulle declared that during his seven-year term he would, if need be, impose what the public good demands.

Debre is an ardent Nationalist, a longtime Gaullist, and chief architect of the new constitution establishing the Fifth Republic.

Was Justice Minister

Debre, who will be 47 in a week, was justice minister in De Gaulle's interim government. Naming Debre was De Gaulle's first major act after he assumed the presidency of the republic shortly after noon. De Gaulle rode triumphantly down the Champs Elysees, then returned to his Elysee palace and summoned Debre.

Debre, a lawyer and administrative specialist, will share executive duties with De Gaulle. The new constitution gives most effective power to the president.

The constitution provides that the president name the premier. There is no provision, as previously, for the National Assembly to confirm him in office.

Thousands Throng Avenue

Cries of "Vive de Gaulle" came from thousands lining the broad Champs Elysees as he drove up the avenue in an open car after taking office. The 68-year-old wartime Free French leader stood stiff and erect despite a brisk wind and nippy 42-degree temperatures.

At the Arch of Triumph De Gaulle and retiring President Rene Coty symbolically rekindled the eternal flame that marks the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

"The first among Frenchmen is henceforth first-ranking man in France," intoned outgoing President Rene Coty.

A 21-gun salute boomed across the Seine as diminutive Gen. Georges Catroux reached up to hang the gold necklace of office around the neck of his towering World War II comrade and commander.

Figurehead Role Ended

The brief ceremony in the presidential Elysee Palace marked the end of the largely figurehead role which French presidents had filled under the Fourth Republic. The new constitution De Gaulle rammed through last summer converted the office into one of real power, along the lines of the U.S. presidency.

Coty, the beloved, 76-year-old outgoing chief of state, told his solemn-faced successor:

"The people of France, so divided on the surface, have found around you their profound unity. . . ."

Undisputed Leader

De Gaulle's elevation ended seven months and a week as premier during which he became the undisputed leader of his country, as he had been at the end of World War II.

During those crowded months he quelled the rebellion of colonists in Algeria that had brought him back to office, revised the governmental structure of France, laid the foundation for new relations between France and her overseas territories, launched a tough program of economic austerity, saw elected a new National Assembly with a large majority pledged to support him and won the presidency of the new Fifth Republic by an overwhelming vote.

One of his first acts as president is expected to be the naming of Michel Debre, 46-year-old justice minister in his cabinet, to be premier of the new government.

FIRST GIRL IN TWO CENTURIES. A real event in the Glenn Holmgrain family history took place at Memphis, Tenn., with the birth of a baby girl. The baby, Jane Elizabeth, shown with her parents, was the first girl born in the Holmgrain family in 200 years. Holmgrain couldn't believe it when the nurse told him it was a baby girl. Then he dashed to call his mother, Mrs. Eric Holmgrain of Rock Island, Ill., who caught the first plane for Memphis. Holmgrain's family history dating back to Sweden shows no daughters born in two centuries. (UPI Telephoto)

Cuban Trials

ported arrested since Batista fled to the Dominican Republic a week ago and victorious rebel leader Fidel Castro proclaimed Urrutia as provisional president.

Gunfire flared briefly in Havana again Wednesday night. Machineguns and other automatic weapons fired for about 15 minutes near the American-operated Nacional Hotel as rebel militia reportedly pursued several carloads of men who had been shooting at random in the streets.

The militia still is trying to eliminate diehard Batista supporters, including members of a private army called the Tigers which belonged to former Sen. Rolando Masferrer.

Flees by Yacht

Masferrer fled by yacht to Key West, Fla. Minister of the Presidency Luis Bush said Cuba will demand his extradition on charges of taking away 17 million dollars belonging to the people. U.S. Customs officials said Masferrer's party of 36 men had about $90,000 when it landed. The men were put on parole to the Miami Immigration Office.

The government banned sales of alcoholic drinks in Havana today in expectation that Castro finally would reach the capital. Officials hoped the ban would prevent heavy drinking that might add to the unstable security situation.

New Regime in Cuba Is Recognized by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new revolutionary government of Cuba has been officially recognized by the United States.

Diplomatic recognition was granted Cuba's provisional government six days after the regime of dictator Fulgencio Batista toppled following months of fighting with Fidel Castro's rebel forces.

The recognition note delivered in Havana late Wednesday to the new Cuban foreign minister, Robert Daniel Agramonte, included a goodwill message from the government and people of the United States to the Cubans and their new government.

It noted that the new government has agreed to live up to Cuba's international obligations.

Military Mission Blasted by Castro

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Fidel Castro was quoted today as belittling the U. S. military mission to Cuba and saying its services are no longer needed.

The newspaper Excelsior, in a dispatch from its correspondent in Cienfuegos, said the leader of the successful rebellion against President Fulgencio Batista made this comment: "Nothing they (the mission) taught had any value. The deficiencies of the North American military instruction helped assure the triumph of the revolution."

Cuba is one of 12 Latin-American nations having a military agreement with the United States.

There was no elaboration of Castro's reported criticism.

In another interview, with Diario de la Marina, Castro noted that the United States, the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua had sold arms to Batista but stopped about a year ago.

Castro said arms then came from Britain and Italy and added: "We are very happy about these last two because they sold dictator Batista very good arms. They are now in our possession.

"Nevertheless, we are indignant at the Dominican Republic because the arms it sold are very bad and possibly will be discarded in the reorganization of the armed forces."

Woman Here Asks $20,000 Damages In Dog Bite Case

A Marion woman who was bitten by a dog last Aug. 8 filed a $20,000 damage suit in Common Pleas Court Wednesday against the alleged owners of the animal.

Mrs. Mary Markley of 1154 Keener Ave. alleges the dog, a German shepherd, was owned and harbored by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Forman of 1177 Woodbine Av.

The plaintiff charges that the dog bit and clawed her on the neck and face. She alleges she suffered a deep gash in her neck and severe lacerations on the left side of her face.

Mrs. Markley alleges she was hospitalized a total of seven days and incurred more than $300 in hospital and physician's expenses. She claims she has been permanently scarred and that the incident caused permanent damage to her nervous system.

The plaintiff is represented by Frank W. Phillips.

Democratic Women Are Invited to DiSalle Tea

An invitation was extended today to all the members of the Marion County Democratic Women's Club to attend a reception at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel in Columbus Monday from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

The reception will honor Mrs. Michael V. DiSalle, wife of Gov.-elect DiSalle, and the wives of other elected state officials and cabinet members.

Word that the Marion County Democratic women are invited to attend the affair was received today by Mrs. Norma Jacob from Mrs. Myrna Smith of Kent, president of the Federated Democratic Women of Ohio. The reception is being planned by the state organization.

Tass even reported that Mrs. Cyrus Eaton gave flowers to Mikoyan and Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — An earthquake of "extreme violence," possibly centered around Rhodes or other Greek islands, was recorded early today by the Istanbul Technical University's seismographs.

The university estimated the quake's epicenter at 320 miles from Istanbul.

$41,000 a year for 14 Cabinet appointees. The pay of one appointee, the adjutant general, would stay the same, and another, the highway director, would be cut by $7,500.

Four hold-overs from O'Neill's Cabinet would not get raises. They come under a statute forbidding pay increases while in office.

When O'Neill received the bill Wednesday, he commented: "I don't know what I'll do with it."

Two years ago he insisted on rescinding salary boosts voted in at his urging by the then Republican - controlled Legislature. All but one was rescinded—the pay boost for the highway director.

The Ohio State Journal said DiSalle personally issued the orders for the bill to go to O'Neill's desk —and run the risk of a veto—rather than hold it up in the Senate Clerk's office until DiSalle is sworn in.

The newspaper, however, offered no explanation for DiSalle's action.

The legislature recessed Wednesday after three days of work in the new session, and will reconvene Monday afternoon. The deluge of new bills is expected to start Tuesday in both houses, leaders said.

Commissioners in Crawford Name Schreck New Chairman

BUCYRUS — Ralph E. Schreck, Bucyrus Democrat, was elected chairman of the board of Crawford County Commissioners here this week when the board also rehired a clerk, dog warden and two physicians.

Mr. Schreck, who was board chairman in 1957, succeeds Roy Eichhorn. Third member of the board is Carl Baker. All are Democrats.

Howard Miller of Crestline was retained as dog warden at a monthly salary of $385, an increase of $20. Commissioners said the increase was granted because of the increased number of licensed dogs, the number of stray dogs picked up and a decline in animal claims.

Mrs. Lucille Kunkel of Galion was rehired as clerk at a salary of $275 a month, a $5 increase. Rehired as county jail physician was Dr. D. D. Bibler of Bucyrus. He will receive $5 per day call and $6 per night call. Dr. W. G. Carlisle of Bucyrus will continue as county home physician at a salary of $1,000 a year.

The commissioners also approved a petition for the annexation of Timberlane Acres, a Polk Township subdivision, to the city of Galion. The resolution will be certified to Galion City Council where it will be on file 60 days after which final action on the transfer will be up to council, commissioners pointed out.

The subdivision contains about 71 acres on the northeast of Galion, 11 acres of which have been platted. The original petition was submitted and signed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ricker, Mr. and Mrs. Ed White and others.

Action Against City Ready for Study by Jury

A Common Pleas jury was expected to begin deliberations this afternoon in a $25,000 damage suit filed against the city by Glenn R. Kellogg of 948 Merkel Ave.

City Solicitor Riley Hall rested his case shortly before noon after calling two witnesses. Walter Moore, of the Moore, Myers and Parsell law firm which represents the plaintiff called 11 witnesses.

The suit, filed last July, grew out of an alleged mishap at Garfield Park on the night of Aug. 15, 1956. Mr. Kellogg alleges his wife, Pauline, stepped into a large fence post hole and seriously injured her leg and back.

He charges the city with negligence for allegedly creating a nuisance and leaving the hole unguarded and without devices to warn the public of its presence.

Mr. Kellogg testified this morning that since the accident, he and his daughter have had to perform many of the household duties normally handled by his wife.

Mrs. Kellogg also filed suit last July in which she seeks $50,000 from the city. That suit has been assigned for hearing the first week in March.

The westbound auto driven by Paul S. Landon, 20, of 198 E. Mark St. skidded into the front end of a disabled car parked along the berm.

According to the report, the abandoned car was owned by Robert E. Laird, 26, of Green Camp. Laird told officers his vehicle stalled and he pushed it off the pavement, leaving it along the berm.

Patrolmen said Landon's car went into the skid when he applied the brakes as he approached the Laird vehicle.

Johnson

Richard M. Nixon, the Senate's presiding officer, who sides with them in contending that each new Senate has the right to adopt its own rules by majority vote.

The point is important, because if Nixon's view is sustained, a simple majority could vote to adopt different rules without operating under the restrictions of prior rules. The rules now permit unlimited debate on any motion to change the rules.

Opposing that is the view that because only one-third of the senators are elected each two years, both the Senate and its rules continue from one session to the next.

The antifilibuster forces had planned to open the battle with a motion by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) that the Senate take up for immediate consideration the adoption of rules for the new Congress.

Instead, Johnson proposed a change in rules to permit filibusters to be halted by two-thirds of the senators present and voting. This contrasts with the present rules requiring the votes of 66 senators, or two-thirds of all 98 members, to shut off debate. It also contrasts with proposals to permit debate limitation by a majority of the members, or 50 senators.

Mikoyan Seen As Fishing for 4-Power Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has told its main European allies that Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan appears to be fishing for a four-power conference on Germany sometime this spring.

But the State Department has cautioned that Mikoyan has put forward nothing new which promises successful negotiation.

The main points of a summary of Mikoyan's confidential talks with Secretary of State Dulles and Vice President Nixon have been given to ambassadors of Britain, France, Italy, and West Germany. These were:

1. The Soviet plan to turn East Berlin over to the East German Red puppet regime by June should not be viewed as a six-month ultimatum. Mikoyan hinted this could be extended.

2. The Soviet Union could be interested in four-power talks this spring on a German peace treaty as well as the future of Berlin. But this was coupled with a reiteration of the Kremlin view that reunification should be left to the East and West Germans to work out for themselves.

3. Veto power for the Soviets is a firm condition to Kremlin acceptance of an East-West organization that would seek to enforce a ban on atomic-hydrogen weapons tests.

4. The Soviet's much ballyhooed campaign for more American trade has played a minor role in Mikoyan's Washington talks. He may make more of this, however, when he returns from sounding out American industrialists on his flying visit to major American cities.

Detroit

land Wednesday in a visit marked sporadically with taunting street demonstrations by Hungarian Freedom Fighters and immigrants from other Iron Curtain countries.

Mikoyan is paying no attention at all to demonstrations against his visit. He is firmly pursuing his policy of emanating friendship, good humor and advocacy of better political and trade relations between the Soviet Union and the United States—and more contacts in general.

Violence Increases

Immigrant groups, spearheaded by Hungarian refugees recently brought to the United States, seem to be becoming more violent in efforts to attract attention to their attacks on the Soviet visitors.

Chanting, shouting, spitting and sign-waving were the principal tactics used Wednesday at the airport and downtown. One young Hungarian woman, arrested for tossing a rock in the general direction of the Soviet party, said she was "sorry I missed." She said her father died in a Soviet concentration camp, her husband spent six years in a work camp and "I see my friends killed by the Russians."

Mikoyan spent a very busy day Wednesday on the first leg of his five - city transcontinental whirlwind tour.

Addresses Industrialists

He addressed a group of wealthy and influential Midwest industrialists at the aristocratic Union Club. He told them he had recently seen a secret Soviet motion picture of an H-bomb explosion and that the picture made him wonder whether all the things the Soviet Union is building might not be annihilated in a few seconds.

The Soviet leader was told by his host in Cleveland, multimillionaire Cyrus Eaton, that Eaton hopes the U.S. Congress will remove restrictions on credits and trade to the Soviet Union.

In Detroit today Mikoyan is in the hands of Walter L. Cisler, president of Detroit Edison. He makes a visit to the Ford River Rouge plant and will catch a glimpse of General Motors and Chrysler, two Detroit Edison plants and have luncheon and dinner with Detroit automotive and industrial executives.

From Detroit he proceeds to Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles before returning to New York early next week. From New York he goes to Washington where he will see President Eisenhower.

No Walkouts Wanted, USW Chief Asserts

CHICAGO (AP)—The president of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America says he hopes an agreement will be reached on a new contract with the basic steel industry without causing a shutdown of operations.

David J. McDonald, commenting Wednesday on predictions of a possible shutdown in the basic steel industry next summer, said if there is a closing of mills, it will be the industry that causes it.

"We certainly do not want to have a shutdown," McDonald told newsmen.

He said the steel industry press has predicted as inevitable a strike by the steelworkers to enforce proposals in the new contract.

"Our international wage policy committee hasn't even met yet," McDonald said. "I have no idea what our proposals will be. I hope we can conclude agreements without a strike."

Contracts covering more than half the union's 1,250,000 workers in the basic steel industry end June 30. McDonald said negotiations probably will begin in June or earlier to replace three-year pacts negotiated in 1956 after a 34-day shutdown. The industry has had three major shutdowns in the last 10 years.

McDonald was in Chicago for a meeting of the union's 28 district directors, hearing union appeal cases. He said the group has not discussed the new contract negotiations and denied the union has formulated demands calling for wage increases, a shorter work week and other benefits.

He said the only discussions with basic steel industry, involving 92 companies, were in connection with the time and place of the contract talks. These matters, he added, have not been settled.

21 Marion Firms Have No Mishaps During November

Twenty-one Marion industries reported no lost-time injury accidents during November at a meeting of the industrial safety council of the Chamber of Commerce held Wednesday noon at Hotel Harding.

The speaker was Dr. Dan Murphy, who discussed "Industrial Backs." He described various back injuries and what causes them. He also described proper methods of lifting and pushing heavy objects and other steps necessary to avoid back injuries.

The council discussed the coming safety awards dinner and set a tentative date for the affair on Tuesday, Feb. 17, at the YMCA.

The industries reporting no lost-time accidents were: Alloy Cast Steel, Baker Wood Preserving, American Malleable Castings, Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, New York Central Railroad, Erie Railroad, Marion Engineer Depot, Harding High School Vocational Shops, Ohio Fuel Gas Co., Bordens Dairy, General Telephone, Marion Power Shovel Co., Fairfield Engineering, Huber - Warco, Eaton Manufacturing, Whirlpool, Tecumseh Steel Products, B. F. Goodrich, McMillen Feed Mills, Quaker Oats and Arro Expansion Bolt.

ance the budget," Bridges said. "I know he is deeply concerned that every necessary effort be made to maintain the nation's security, and he can be trusted to do that.

"But that won't keep the Democrats from making political attacks on his proposals."

Eisenhower will outline his legislative program personally in a State of the Union message Friday, and will send to Congress Jan. 19 what he said will be a budget balanced at about 77 billion dollars.

Johnson served advance notice the Democrats are preparing a rough reception for a budget of this size. They contend it would pinch defense spending and call for retrenchment in many domestic programs. Johnson said "We cannot afford to bankrupt the national conscience to serve the ends of political bookkeeping."

Kuchel, elected Wednesday as assistant GOP leader, said Johnson's attack on the administration makes it clear "there will be no deficit of politics in this session of Congress."

Young Takes Senate Seat, Rips Lausche

WASHINGTON (AP) — Stephen Young, new Democratic senator from Ohio, Wednesday declined to walk down the Senate aisle with his Democratic colleague, Sen. Frank Lausche, despite senatorial custom.

Normally when a new senator is sworn in he is escorted by his colleague.

"I will walk down the aisle to take my solemn oath of office without leaning on the arm, or clasping the hand of my distinguished Ohio colleague," Young said in a statement.

"If Sen. Lausche supported me for election it was a well-guarded secret," Young said, adding that over the years he had supported Lausche for judge, mayor, governor and senator.

Young's seating today gives Ohio two Democratic senators for the first time since the 30s.

The last Democrats to hold both Senate offices from Ohio were Robert Bulkley and Vic Donahey. That Democratic combination was broken by the defeat of Bulkley in 1938 by the late Robert A. Taft.

Among those on hand to see Young sworn in were his wife; his daughter, Mrs. Robert Richardson of Shaker Heights, Ohio; and his son, Richard Young of Cleveland.

There were shifts in the composition of the Ohio delegation in the House, too. But in contrast to Young's age of 69, the stress of the new House members was on comparative youth.

The House membership is 14 Republicans and 9 Democrats from Ohio—a net gain of three for the Democrats.

Here are the five new Ohio House members being sworn in:

Democrats — Rep. Robert E. Cook, 38, of Kent, former Portage County prosecutor; Rep. Robert W. Levering, 44, Mount Vernon lawyer; and Rep. Walter H. Moeller, 48, on leave of absence as pastor of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Lancaster.

Republicans — Rep. Samuel L. Devine of Columbus, 43, former FBI agent and ex-prosecutor in Franklin County; and Rep. Delbert L. Latta, 38, former Ohio state senator and Bowling Green lawyer.

Valuable 'Toy'

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Rupert Loza picked up a piece of what he thought was costume jewelry in the mud near a hotel and gave it to his young daughter, who carelessly tied it to her favorite rag doll — until the bracelet was identified in the lost and found ads as platinum with 21 diamonds, valued at $4,000. The Lozas returned it.

St. Louis Police Hunt Maniac In Slaying of Young Mother

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Police say there is no doubt a sex maniac mutilated and killed a young mother, whose body was found Wednesday in her car here.

Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, 32, a social worker and the mother of two, was found 13 hours after she left a sorority party. She apparently was strangled with two lengths of rope found near the car. An autopsy is to be performed today.

Her car was parked across the street from the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Brookman, where the Phi Mu sorority party was held.

Mrs. Montague's brother, Donald Jones, found the body. He began looking for her after her husband, Charles D. Montague, notified police and members of the family that she was missing.

Police said objects found at the scene and marks on the body left no doubt that Mrs. Montague was killed by a sadist.

Her body had a superficial cut on each thigh, a deep scratch on her throat and nine punctures of the skin. The mutilations were made after death, police said. Officers said she was not raped.

Mrs. Montague's stockings were rolled down about her ankles. She was clothed in a black cloth coat and blue dress.

Police said there was dirt on her heels, as if she had been dragged across soft ground. Officers searched a nearby park and other secluded areas for clues as to where the slaying occurred.

A long-bladed paring knife was found in the glove compartment of the car. It bore no visible blood stains but it was taken to the police laboratory for analysis. Her unopened purse also was in the car and the ignition keys were in her coat pocket.

Montague said he began hunting his wife at 1 a.m. Wednesday morning. The police investigation began about 7 a.m. and she was found about noon.

Mrs. Motague worked at the Missouri State Division of Welfare where she interviewed applicants for welfare benefits.

Settle for Gasoline

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Two youths drove up to a service station in suburban Renton and pulled a pistol on attendant Roy Wendt. "I haven't any money," Wendt said. "Okay," answered one would-be robber. "Fill up the tank, then." Wendt did: $3.35 worth. The robbers drove off—but not until they received their change for a $5 bill one of them handed Wendt.

Six students again this year will be selected to represent Marion County at the World Affairs Institute in Cincinnati, Arthur Martin, chairman of the Marion Rotary Club committee sponsoring the trip, reported today.

Two delegates will be chosen from Harding High School, one from Marion Catholic High School and three from county schools to participate in the government forum experience March 13 and 14.

The city and county delegates, to be selected by the schools, will be accompanied on the trip by two Rotary Club members and their wives as chaperones

Theme of the 13th annual institute is "Africa, South of the Sahara—New Frontier." The program is being sponsored by the Cincinnati Council of World Affairs, the Cincinnati Rotary Club and the Crosley Broadcasting Corp. in cooperation with groups such as the Marion Rotary Club. Mechta Picks Up Speed

Russians Calculate Sun Rocket Is Now in Orbit

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Scientists figure the space rocket Mechta is now in orbit around the sun. They predict it will reach its top speed of 72,000 miles per hour next Wednesday.

They expect the peak velocity to be reached when the missile gets to the point nearest the sun, a distance figured at about 91½ million miles, in its elliptical orbit.

"At that moment it will reach its maximum speed of more than 32 kilometers (about 20 miles) a second," the official Soviet news agency Tass said.

Nearly Triple Speed

This will be nearly triple the speed at which the rocket was launched last Friday.

The missile was hurled clear of the earth's gravitational field to become the solar system's first artificial planet.

According to Soviet calculations, the rocket Wednesday had gone more than 621,000 miles on a direct line from the earth. Tass said this distance between earth and Mechta would increase at "a terrific pace since the earth and the artificial planet are diverging in the cosmos."

Prof. V. Dobronravov, a nuclear physicist, said in a radio broadcast Wednesday the rocket was big enough to have been manned if the Soviets had so desired.

Would Not Have Returned

If a man had been aboard, he never would have returned to earth. Anatoly A. Blagonravov, a member of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, told newsmen Tuesday that the time of the first manned rocket flight depends on how soon the problem of survival during reentry into the earth's atmosphere is solved.

Blagonravov was quoted in a Capetown, South Africa, newspaper today as saying the Soviets expect to land men on Venus and Mars in September.

Police Reports

Myrtle LaRue of 458 Polk St. reported at 3 08 p m Wednesday that sometime Tuesday night someone broke into the coal shed at the rear of her residence and took an undetermined amount of coal. She said the thieves also took the lock from the door.

Mailbox Thefts Reported Here

Vandals Face Stiff Sentences if Caught

A rash of rural mailbox thefts during the last 10 days brought stern warnings today from Sheriff Glenn Obenour and Postmaster Homer D. Cole that no leniency will be shown if the vandals are apprehended.

Sheriff Obenour said about eight mailboxes have been torn from their posts and that some have been found by city police on Senate St He said he believes the mailboxes are being stolen by the same persons who have removed a number of bridge approach signs during recent weeks.

"We won't fool with them here," said the sheriff. "If we pick anyone up for tampering with mailboxes we'll turn him over to federal authorities for prosecution."

Postal authorities said the maximum penalty for tampering with mailboxes is a $1,000 fine or three years in prison.

Mr. Cole said he has filed a report of the incidents with postal inspectors. He also warned that the offenders would be severely dealt with if apprehended by postal authorities.

The Ford Foundation has given a grant of $175,000 to the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, D.C.

Knodel Shakes Prexy Lineup for Elyria Struggle

3 Changes Planned On Starting Squad

Harding High School's hardcourt legion, smarting after two straight losses, gets back into action Friday and Saturday nights.

Coach Don Knodel's cagers play host to Elyria Friday and then travel to Worthington for Saturday's tilt.

Elyria will come to town sporting a flashy 9-0 record: Coach Dale Reichenbach's cagers, en route to their current mark, have rolled over Sandusky, Lorain, Findlay, Fremont and Mansfield.

THE PIONEERS WILL run up against a Harding crew that has a 5-3 overall mark and a 2-2 Buckeye Conference record. The Prexies are tied with Findlay for fourth place in current loop standings.

Changes, the order of the day in the last two weeks, in the President camp, will be evident again come Friday night.

Knodel, obviously miffed at his team's play, will start three sophomores in the Elyria game. Dave Grumblatt, 6-5, will be in the pivot spot, with Paul Cressor, 6-2, and Dan Wendell, 5-11, as the two guards. Bob Middleton and Mike Chamberlain will go at the forwards.

"We have been making too many mistakes and losing the ball on too many turnovers," the Prexy pilot asserted. "If that is to be the case, we might as well have the miscues made by sophomores who are learning."

"I don't say we'll go the whole game against Elyria with that quintet, but those boys will start," Knodel declared. He suggested that a spell on the bench "may be what some of these boys need who think they've got it made."

"Unless I miss my guess, they won't care much for the bench action," he offered.

ELYRIA WILL floor a starting five that averages over 6-foot. And, according to Knodel, the Pioneers are fast, have plenty of hustle and make few mistakes.

The Elyrians will probably start Bill Mrukowski, 6-3 and Gast, 5-10, at the guards, put Davis and Guest at the forwards, and Walt Rock, 6-4, at center. Davis and Guest are 6-2 and 6-4 respectively and Davis has been the sparkplug of the team, scoring an average of 25 points per game.

"I hope," Knodel said, "that we can look back on this weekend of basketball as a good one. I won't make any predictions. We'll wait and see."

The President mentor said he knew "very little" about Worthington, except that they had a "pretty decent ball club" and have a 6-2 overall record.

Gulliford Cagers Rout League Opponent 99-51

Gulliford Hardware raced to an easy 99-51 rout of Wilson Auctioneers Wednesday night in Tri-County League action at Richwood.

Gulliford jumped into an early lead and was never in serious trouble. By the halftime intermission, the winners had built up a 45-22 cushion.

Bob Weston registered 25 points to lead the winning attack while Jay Flach netted 24 and Paul Sheppard and Merv Stover each finished with 17. Bob Messner popped in 19 points to lead the losers and Fran Gruber canned 16.

Drawings for World Title Cage Chase Held

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The luck of the draw put Nationalist China and Russia in different brackets today and solved a touchy problem for the World Basketball Championships starting here Jan. 16.

Reports from both Formosa and Moscow had indicated each would not want to meet the other for political reasons.

The draw at Munich Wednesday put Nationalist China in group A with the United States, Argentina and the United Arab Republic. Russia is in group B with Brazil, Mexico and Canada.

Toledo Team Handed Defeat By Kent State

By The Associated Press

Mid-American Conference basketball standings got a thorough shaking up Wednesday night.

Toledo's Rockets, who were leading the pack with a 2-0 record, suffered their first loss and slipped into a second place tie with idle Miami. Both are now 2-1.

Ohio University's Bobcats and Kent State's Golden Flashes, both previously untested in conference play, came up with their first victories and shot into a tie for first place.

The Bobcats, in their victory over Marshall, knocked the Big Green into fourth place behind Bowling Green. The BeeGees won their first loop game by defeating last place Western Michigan, and now are 1-1 compared with Marshall's 1-2.

Kent State, in its conference opener, handed Toledo its worst shellacking in many a moon, 58-29. The Flashes jumped off to a 12-0 lead in the first five minutes and led 29-8 at the half.

Marshall held a 12-point lead at the half (46-34) but Ohio University put on a second period scoring spree and won the game in the last 20 seconds, 88-84.

Bowling Green tossed away a large early lead and then regained it en route to an 86-65 victory over Western Michigan. The Falcons jumped off to a 22-8 bulge in the opening minutes, but Western Michigan tied it 39-39 at intermission. In the second half, Bowling Green fell behind by two points, but quickly surged forward again to win by 21 points.

In the Ohio Conference, Akron and Wittenberg both held slim leads at halftime before opening up in the second period to win by 34 and 20 points, respectively. Akron downed Denison, 85-51, and Wittenberg routed Ohio Wesleyan 92-72.

Elsewhere on the Ohio cage scene, Dayton cruised to a 57-47 victor yover Duquesne; Youngstown registered its 11th straight home court victory, 87-78 over St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Defiance, paced by Charlie Koch's 36 points, was never behind in whipping Wilberforce 97-82; and Centre of Kentucky also led all the way and staved off a late rally by Wilmington to win 70-64.

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

Emil Lisak, director of the Marion Adult Education program, and Bob Ferguson, secretary of the Heart of Ohio Football Officials Association, have combined efforts to offer Marion area residents a football first in Ohio.

SHORT

For the first time anywhere, local persons will be offered a non-campus football officiating course during this winter's classes. Prior to this time, classes in officiating were offered at only five colleges as part of their physical education programs.

The 10-week course, meeting two hours each week during the adult program, is designed to help young men from this area become accredited officials under the Ohio High School Athletic Association standards.

"THE COURSE also will offer other persons, including women, a greater insight and understanding of football," Ferguson said.

For those people wanting only to gain a greater insight into the game a $5 fee will be charged. For those men planning to take the OHSAA examinations, a $10 fee has been set. That fee covers the cost of the course and the regular fee for the tests.

Special arrangements have been made by Ferguson for the conducting of the examination here after the completion of the 10-week course. The exam will be given under supervision of an OHSAA official.

Ordinarily the exams are held only once a year. The date usually comes in October but under the local plan new officials will be certified in time to round up a schedule of games for the 1959 campaign.

FERGUSON WILL act as instructor for the regular session but he has reported an abundance of support from fellow members of the Heart of Ohio Association. Nearly every member of the group has agreed to handle at least one session of the course for specialized instruction in some phase of the game.

"We expect to have some lively discussions during the course," Ferguson said. "We hope to stress all phases of the game and will go into detail on any rules causing confusion for the fans."

The officials are looking forward eagerly to the 10-week course. "We also hope to give the fans a better view of the game from the side of the officials," Ferguson admitted.

Chisox Players Facing Cut in 1959 Contracts

CHICAGO (AP) — A drop in 1958 attendance has brought a pay cut for most of the Chicago White Sox players.

Chuck Comiskey, the club's vice president, said that most of the 1959 contracts in the mail now, or at their destination, call for salary reductions.

11 Farm Hands Slated To Train With Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians are inviting nine pitchers and two other players from the Tribe farm system to train with the Indians in Tucson beginning Feb. 25.

The pitchers are Paul Robinson, Ed Drapcho, Bob Allen, Larry Locke, Jim Perry, Vic Lapiner, Bill Dietrich, Carl Thomas and Walter Seward.

The others are catcher Frank Biskup of Youngstown and first baseman Gordon Coleman.

General Manager Frank Lane said the farmhands will stay with the Tribe for at least three weeks, until the opening of the club's minor league training headquarters at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Dick Schafrath Signed To Cleveland Contract

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Paul Brown announced today that Dick Schafrath, Ohio State tackle, has signed with the Cleveland Browns for the 1959 season.

Schafrath, a native of Wooster, was drafted by the Browns in the second round of the National Football League's early selections in December. He stands 6-foot-1 and weighs 230 pounds.

The Browns plan to use him as a guard on offense or an end on defense.

Last Night's Fights

Chicago — Bobby Boyd, 160½, Chicago, outpointed Holly Mims, 155½, Washington, 10.

Stockton, Calif. — Tony Dupas, 136½, New Orleans, outpointed Teddy (Red Top) Davis, 143, San Jose, 10.

Handed Probation

NCAA Suspension Voted Against USC

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI The University of Southern California, which last year scored the first team triple in NCAA championship history, today was left with crack baseball, tennis and track squads that cannot defend their titles.

And the USC swimming team, boasting Australian stars Murray Rose and Jon Henricks, is not eligible to challenge Michigan for the NCAA swimming championship because the NCAA Executive Council Wednesday night placed Southern Cal on two years' probation for violation of the NCAA athletic code.

But in an earlier action on the first day of the 53rd annual convention, the NCAA gave new athletic life to football player Don Fuell, key figure in the Auburn recruiting scandal which culminated in NCAA probation for Auburn and Southern Conference disciplinary action which barred Fuell, an end, from participation in SEC athletics.

In a ruling requested by Mississippi Southern College, the council said that Fuell would be eligible to compete in athletics at the Hattiesburg, Miss., school if he transferred from Auburn where he is now a third-semester student. This, in effect, gave Fuell a clean bill of health at any NCAA - member school except

Albie Pearson Selected 'Rookie of Year' in AL

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's constituents are not the only ones bursting with pride in this Cuban metropolis today.

Albie Pearson of the Washington Senators, a pint-sized ballplayer with a rifle arm, two swift feet and a sharp batting eye, had this to say about winning the 1958 American League rookie-of-the-year award:

"It's a mighty big thrill. There were some times during the season that I was a bit disappointed about my hitting. But everything worked out fine. I still think there's room for improvement. A .300 season next year would suit me fine."

Pearson, a .275 batter in '58, received 14 of 24 votes in balloting conducted by the Baseball Writers Assn. of America. Ryne Duren, New York Yankees' relief ace, collected seven and Cleveland righthander Gary Bell polled the other three. The results of the vote were announced Wednesday.

Pearson now is playing with Havana in the Cuban Winter League.

those in the Southeastern Conference.

Within a few hours after the ruling, it was announced at Hattiesburg that Fuell had entered Mississippi Southern. He already had been accepted for the winter term which began Tuesday.

Action Unexpected

It had been expected that Southern Cal, already serving a two-year probation, would be restored to good graces. The previous two-year probation had been due to expire Nov. 13, 1958, and the official announcement that it had done so was expected by the NCAA.

Over - all, the university is barred from participating in 15 NCAA championship events and 28 cooperating events for the period of one year; from participation in any NCAA-controlled sports television appearances for two years, and it was stipulated additionally that any violation of NCAA requirements during the two-year period may be considered as cause for expulsion from the NCAA.

Tour Interrupted

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Van Cliburn and his Tucson dentist have confirmed that dental work has interrupted the Texas pianist's concert tour. The dentist, who declined use of his name, said the treatment was necessary and Cliburn "should be left alone to have it done."

REDLEGS TO OPEN CAMP

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs announced today they will open the 1959 spring training camp for pitchers and catchers at Tampa, Fla., on Feb. 23. The rest of the squad will report three days later.

Villanova Nips Muhlenberg's Cagers 99-85

By The Associated Press

Villanova's Wildcats, scraping away with blunted claws the last couple of basketball seasons, seem to have honed up a dandy this time around with a coach's dream parlay of height and speed.

The Wildcats, one of four unbeatens left in the nation's major school ranks after Wednesday night's 99-85 whipping of Muhlenberg, have rolled over eight straight opponents with a versatile starting lineup that scales down by stages from 6-8 to 5-9. The schedule hasn't been overpowering although Villanova's victims include the likes of Penn, Duke, Temple and Siena. It's more the ease with which they've whipped through it, averaging a 21-point winning margin.

Youngstown Wins

Boston U. downed Springfield, 80-55, but St. Francis (Pa.) was toppled from the unbeatens after bagging seven straight, 87-78 by Youngstown.

In other action Maryland clamped down Duke in an Atlantic Coast Conference test, 64-33, Kent State wrapped up Toledo 58-29 in a Mid-American Conference game, and Oglethorpe dropped a 75-15 blanket on West Georgia.

Texas Christian took over the Southwest Conference leadership with a 2-0 record with a 52-45 victory over Arkansas, and burly Utah, a bunch of 200-pounders plus, nipped Montana 71-69 in Skyline Conference play.

Spring Hill, 80-73 over Murray (Ky), and Centenary, a 87-64 upset winner over favored Tennessee Tech, reached the final of the senior Bowl tournament at Mobile and play for the title tonight.

Dayton Spurls to Win

Oklahoma City, 13th ranked in the weekly AP poll, boosted its record to 9-1 by hitting half its shots in a 90-63 thumping of West Texas State, and injured Terry Bockhorn came off the bench to trigger sputtering Dayton to a 57-47 decision over Duquesne, scoring four points when the Dukes threatened.

Ray Blemker's 20 points led Georgia Tech over Georgia 66-62 in a game that won't count in the Southeastern Conference. Temple and La Salle, a pair that have seen better seasons, swept a doubleheader at the Philadelphia Palestra. Temple toppled Pitt 86-73 and La Salle nipped Bucknell 70-68.

Bowling

Buckeye League keglers rolled Wednesday night at the Plaza Lanes. Eaton and Business Men were in action at the Palace, while Mom and Pop and the Ladies All-Stars scored on the Marion Recreation Center boards.

Frank Summerson posted single and series highs in Buckeye loop with scores of 224 and 526 respectively. Ron Lust converted a 5-8-10 split.

In Eaton kegling, Dave Clark had the high single game of 224 pins, with Al DeSimone's 562 the top series. DeSimone posted a 200 single game, with Clark's series total a 508. Others getting top tallies included Roger Brookover, 212; Homer Pierce, 520; Addra Bright, 517; Clarence Primmer, 506; Red Couts, 503; and Frank Eiseman, 502.

For Mom and Pop, Myron Gibson and Skin Bailey topped the men's scoring with 190 and 484 single and series totals respectively. Eve Bailey rolled a 160 and a 438 to edge other women contenders. Additional creditable highs were recorded for Paul Eshman, 188-167—479; Myron Gibson, 468; Bill Lavender, 174—465; Bob Riddle, 182; Harold Ullom, 168; Trudi Kingsley, 150—408; Connie Gibson, 159; Sylvia Sterritt, 151. Team 7 posted highs of 626 and 1802.

Helen Culp and Marge Krausz shared high single game honors in Ladies All-Star play with 201 totals. Marie Hamilton came to the fore with a 578 to grab series laurels. Olmedo Idled In Australian Tennis Action

PERTH (AP) — Alejandro Olmedo's sensational Australian tennis campaign came to a temporary halt today when the young Peruvian was forced to withdraw from the Western Australian championships because of a strained stomach muscle.

Playing with United States Davis Cup teammate Barry MacKay, of Dayton, Ohio, in the doubles semifinals, Olmedo walked off the court after playing 12 games and said: "I am sorry—I cannot continue."

At that stage the 22-year-old Olmedo who almost singlehanded whipped Australia in the Davis Cup Challenge Round 10 days ago, had dropped his third straight service and was in obvious pain. Sweden's Ulf Schmidt and Jan Lundquist had won the first set 6-3 and were leading 2-1 in the second.

Although no formal announcement was made it was a virtual certainty that Olmedo also would pull out of the singles semifinals Friday, when he is scheduled to play Andres Gimeno of Spain, and rest himself for the Australian nationals later this month in Adelaide.

Olmedo's default would send Gimeno into the singles final where he would meet the winner of the match between MacKay and Earl Buchholz Jr. of St. Louis, American teammates.

Radio and Television

By MARIE TORRE

Levenson's a Teacher at Heart

It is in many ways distressing that a bright and engaging fellow named Sam Levenson has decided to spend the immediate future (13 weeks, at least) with an insignificant little game show known as "Masquerade Party" instead of educational television.

Marie Torre

We say distressing because Levenson, who put aside his academic robes to become a full-fledged comedian some time ago, is still a teacher at heart and much needed by the orphans of educational TV.

In past months, NBC and CBS, among others, have urged Levenson to play the ham in a local TV classroom instead of on a commercial state, and he listened attentively to all proposals.

That he remains unwilling to venture into that area of educational TV, however, can be attributed to an irresolute industry rather than a disinterested Levenson.

LEVENSON'S interested, emphatically, in the noble practice of teaching through television. When he says it would give him the greatest pride to grace a hall of learning in TV, he is not giving voice to empty words. But . . .

"Nobody sees it my way," Levenson rues.

"Television is being criminally wasted as an aid to education," he continued, "because nobody is willing to put up a little money and treat education as excitingly, at least, as it treats a box of cereal.

"I have great respect for commercial techniques. With commercial techniques, the industry is breeding a whole generation of starers, kids who can watch, transfixed, at that set for hours.

"But how can educational TV compete for their attention when it's allotted a budget that doesn't allow for anything more than a teacher who 'talks' the full program?

"Any TV commercial has more drama, more production, more excitement, and educational TV must have those elements to be effective in a commercial medium."

IT BEHOOVES television, Levenson feels, to get the greatest of teachers and the greatest of techniques marshaled on the side of education.

"Get Leonard Bernstein to teach music," he suggests. "If Shakespeare is the subject, get Laurence Olivier to act in it. If geography is being studied, it ought to be treated like a Lowell Thomas production.

"Walt Disney should be working for educational TV. It shouldn't be hard to get the most famous personalities in different fields. There is no more important thing than educating our young."

His altruistic sentiments are genuine, and it is educational television's loss — the viewing nation's loss, actually — that Levenson will be preoccupied in the coming months with strictly entertainment performances on "Masquerade Party," "The Ed Sullivan Show" and at various night clubs around the country.

After all, he has to make a living. Happily, however, the lack of industry money and interest in educational television haven't caused him to lose sight of the medium's ability to enlighten and inform.

"If television," Levenson concluded, "can teach beer cans to march, it can teach anything to children."

"GUNSMOKE" is showing signs of toppling from its kingly Top Ten perch, and, according to Nielsen, it's because of the growing popularity of its opponent, "Cimarron City." The December Nielsen indicates that "Cimarron" has attracted 10 million new viewers. . .

Jonathan Winters, having patched up his differences with Jack Paar, visits the latter's show on Jan. 16. . . .

Van Cliburn, interviewed on the season's premiere Metropolitan Opera broadcast, will pick up where he left off with interviewer Clifton Fadiman between the third and fourth acts of the Met's "La Giaconda" on CBS Radio Saturday. . .

Myrna Loy, who's been TV-shy, pays a welcome visit to George Gobel's comedy hour next Tuesday.

Leland Frederick Cooley, who used to produce the Perry Como TV shows and now is program director at KTLA in Los Angeles, has departed from the norm in not selecting a show business background for his first novel, "The Run for Home," a novel about the salty men who sailed the Pacific Ocean during the turbulent '20s. We mention the book note here because it's so unusual for a television man to write a tome and not bite the hand that feeds him.

AT&T Head Confident On Antimissile Missile

NEW YORK (AP) — Frederick R. Kappel, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. says he is confident a missile to destroy enemy intercontinental ballistic missiles could be developed.

"Our people are certain this job can be done," he told a Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Tuesday.

Western Electric, a division of the telephone system, is the prime contractor for Nike Zeus, the only American antimissile missile in the research and development stage.

Chocolate 'Dribbles' Make Lemon Pie Special

A refreshing chiffon-type pie would be a conversation piece at your bridge club, shower, or for that matter, any special occasion. Your own family group is always special, and you'll discover that men aren't the only "pie-faces" when it comes to pie for dessert.

After your crust is cool, spread a thin coating of melted chocolate over the inside of the cooled shell to start your split-level pie — Lemon Revel. For the filling, use your favorie lemon chiffon pie filling mix or your own recipe.

Pile half in the shell, dribble on another layer of chocolate, then more filling, and top with circles of chocolate. Call out your ingenuity and make many other designs to fit the occasion and intrigue your guests.

Lemon Revel Pie

9" Baked Pie Shell
Lemon Chiffon Pie Filling
3 sq. semi-sweet chocolate (3 oz.) melted

Pie Shell

1 cup sifted enriched flour
½ tsp. salt
1-3 cup shortening (add about 1 tbsp. if using hydrogenated)
2 tbsp. water

Heat oven to 475 degrees (very hot). Mix flour, salt. Cut in shortening. Sprinkle with water; mix with fork. Round into ball. Roll out 1" larger than inverted pie pan. Ease into pan, flute edges, and prick pastry. Bake 8 to 10 minutes.

Filling

Prepare your own favorite Lemon Chiffon Pie Filling or use Prepared Lemon Chiffon Pie Filling Mix following directions on the package. Brush inside of cooled baked pie shell with thin coating of melted chocolate.

Pile one-half of the filling into shell. Dribble 2 tbsp. melted chocolate over top of filling. Add remaining filling and dribble remaining chocolate in thin line swirl over top of filling. Place in refrigerator several hours until set.

AREAS SERVED BY TELEPHONE SERVICE COMPANY OF OHIO

The Telephone Business is definitely not Big Business. In the early days each community had its own individual telephone company with a toll line company providing the means for these communities to talk to each other.

Gradually these individual companies began to see the need for closer connections with each other. Thus, they began to build connecting toll lines and to combine to form larger operating companies. Such mergers have resulted in better equipment and improved service. Today there are more than 160 telephone companies operating in the State of Ohio, each interested in bringing the very best possible service to its subscribers. These telephone companies are small enough to be able to give personal attention to the needs of their subscribers.

This company for example, has 43 exchanges that serve a total of 48,380 subscribers. Supplying good telephone service is our responsibility to each of these subscribers.

Irish Will Battle Crestline, Columbus Aquinas Squads

Marion Catholic basketballers take the road Friday, with Crestline their opponents. Then, in a Saturday night game, the Irish of Coach Ray Robbins will tangle with a visiting Columbus Aquinas quintet.

Against Crestline the Robbinsmen will be pitting an 0-7 record against a 2-7 mark. Coach John Hughes' boys have been having their troubles this year and, to date, have managed to prevail over only two teams—Bucyrus and Galion.

The Bulldogs have tumbled to the onslaughts of Ontario, Willard, Upper Sandusky, Bucyrus (in a return match), Loudonville, Bellville and Mansfield St. Peter.

MARION CATHOLIC has succumbed to Upper Sandusky, Elm Valley, Tiffin Calvert, Mount Gilead, Ridgedale, Scioto Valley and Cardington.

Crestline, lacking speed and height, has done rather well offensively this season, canning an average of 60 points per game. But, as Hughes points out, they have been giving up about 72 digits a contest. "Our defense," asserts the Bulldog mentor, "has been our big problem."

Against the Irish, Crestline will probably floor the following starting five: Gary Legg, 5-10 senior, and Willard Mackey, 5-11 junior, at the forwards; Nik Pry, 5-11 senior, at center; and Bob Fisher, 5-11 senior, and Jerry Harbaugh, 5-9 junior, at the guards. Pete Waltbillig and Chet Morton, 6-foot and 5-9 juniors respectively, will see considerable action.

Pry, the big cog in the Bulldog wheel of fortune, is averaging 22.8 points per game, while Fisher has 16 per outing.

"Our spirit is good," Hughes observed. "I think we've reached our offensive peak. It remains to be seen what we can do with our defense."

ROBBINS WILL, as in games past, shuffle his players among his entire varsity squad. These boys include Ted Anderson, Tom Rish, Dennis Blue, Dennis Dickerson, Paul Hurney, Larry Roth, Harry Traugh, Steve Myers and Duane Isom.

In Columbus Aquinas, Marion Catholic faces a team with a 2-3 record and a game against Columbus Marion Franklin Friday night.

The Terriers of Coach Elwood Petchel have triumphed over Columbus West and Columbus Eastmore, while losing to Marion Harding (58-44), Columbus East and Portsmouth. Aquinas is 2-1 in the Columbus City League.

Fair height graces the Columbus quintet, although, according to Petchel, "we're playing in too tough a loop to make our efforts count for much."

Against the Irish, the Terrier starters will probably be Frank Schneider, 6-2 senior, in the pivot post, James Hatfield and Edward Powell, a brace of 6-foot seniors, in the guard spots, and Bruce Brown, 6-3 senior, and probably Albert Bellisari, 5-8 junior, as the forwards. Bellisari, however, may have to share his duties with Michael Momberg, John Welsh, John Rhodes and James Savage. "The actual starter at forward, along with Brown, depends on Friday's game," Petchel said this morning.

The Terrier Coach said, "We may not come to Marion with much, but we'll be up there trying."

The Terriers downed the Irish last season 76-53.

Unanimous Selection

Marchetti Leads Choices On NFL's All-Star Squad

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gino Marchetti, Baltimore's destructive defensive end, led the voting for The Associated Press' 1958 National Football League's all-pro team, dominated by the champion Colts and the New York Giants.

Marchetti, an eight-year veteran from the University of San Francisco, was the only unanimous choice among the 41 writers who covered the NFL campaign this season. The 6-4, 240-pounder was one of six Colts named to the two units, one more than the Giants.

5 Other Colts Named

Johnny Unitas, the great quarterback; offensive end Ray Berry; offensive tackle Jim Parker; defensive tackle Gene Lipscomb and fleet halfback Lenny Moore were the other Colts named.

Linebacker Sam Huff led the five Giants named to the all-pro squad. The others were offensive tackle Rosey Brown, center Ray Weitecha, defensive end Andy Robustelli and safetyman Jimmy Patton.

Los Angeles placed three men on offense, guard Duane Putnam, end Del Shofner and halfback Jon Arnett.

Pittsburgh placed two, defensive tackle Ernie Stautner and defensive halfback Jack Butler.

Detroit Places Two

Detroit's Lions also won two places the all-star squad — linebacker Joe Schmidt and defensive halfback Yale Lary. Cleveland's sole representative was Jimmy Brown, who received all but two of the votes for fullback. Green Bay's honored player was safety Bobby Dillon while middle guard Bill George was the Chicago Bears' man. Offensive guard Dick Stanfel made it for Washington.

Philadelphia, San Francisco and the Chicago Cardinals were not represented.

Newspaper Vital, Advertisers Learn in New York Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — The yuletide strike shutdown of nine New York City newspapers has given advertisers a "new awareness that newspapers are vital to them," a trade group reports on the basis of a survey.

The Newsprint Information Committee, composed of a representative group of Canadian newsprint producers, conducted a canvass on the effects of the newspaper blackout here.

A strike by the Newspaper and Mail Deliveries Union (Ind) led to a newspaper shutdown for 19 days, which ran three days past Christmas.

Some of the results of the canvass, announced Wednesday were:

Executives of a wide variety of stores said that emergency advertising on radio and television and in subways cost them more and generally was less satisfactory than newspaper advertising.

These executives—of department stores, specialty shops, discount houses and others—said they have no intention of increasing their use of radio, TV and subway media next Christmas season.

The canvassing committee estimated a 50-million-dollar loss to the community and industry and labor from the strike.

Tito Visits Burma

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia sailed in today for a two-day state visit to Burma on his tour to seek closer relations with other neutral nations.

President Win Maung and Prime Minister Ne Win greeted Tito and his wife at the dock. The Communist guerrilla leader was to confer later with Ne Win, the former army chief who took over the Burmese government 10 weeks ago with a pledge of reforms and free elections in the spring.

Only 'Miracle' Stopped Blast After Mishap

Kenton Area Crash Spilled 1,000 Gallons Of Naphthene at Site

KENTON — The three funeral homes in Kenton Wednesday afternoon began the task of sending the bodies of six Cleveland, Tenn., men back to their home town for burial.

The six were victims of a truck-car collision on Rt. 68 about two miles north of here Wednesday morning.

Sheriff's deputies revealed Wednesday night that the accident almost became a worse tragedy. The truck, a tanker vehicle, was loaded with 5,000 gallons of highly explosive naphthene. Deputies said the cold weather apparently prevented an explosion when the car and truck collided.

Only a "miracle" prevented an explosion, officers said. Some 1,000 gallons of the material was spilled on the highway near the crash scene and law officials and other workmen were using burning flares and smoking cigarettes in the area. A spark dropped into the naphthene could have touched off a blast which would have killed all nearby spectators, deputies said later.

Once Kenton firemen arrived, they quickly put a halt to all smoking and use of flares. Even photographers on the scene were prohibited from using flash bulbs lest a spark ignite the fumes.

The pavement was hosed down for about three hours but firemen stayed on the scene until late Wednesday afternoon just in case the truck should catch fire.

Another truck from the Ansco Gasoline Co., which owned the tanker involved in the accident, arrived later in the day and emptied the damaged truck of its contents.

Charges have not yet been filed against the truck driver, Albert F. Ohl, 24, of Tiffin, but deputies indicated Wednesday that he will face a count of driving left of center. They said skid marks from his truck were eight feet on the wrong side of the road. The car skidded 100 feet before the collision, deputies said.

Killed in the crash were John B. Gibson, 32, the car's driver; Robert David Lee, 31; Richard Eugene Kelly, 28; Horace Boyd, 24; Floyd Clark, 22, and Herbert Goins, 41.

Deputies said Ohl, who was taken to San Antonio Hospital with cuts, abrasions and shock, was still incoherent Wednesday night and unable to be questioned.

Fire Reports

FIRE CALLS
(Wednesday)

3:55 p.m. to 443 Girard Ave., residence of James R. Gibson, where a defective control on a gas dryer caused a blaze inside the machine. Firemen of the Central Station answered the alarm and reported a loss of $275. They said the dryer was badly damaged as well as a load of rugs inside it, and smoke filled the house.

9:10 p.m. to the corner of E. Church and Greenwood streets where fire broke out under the hood of an auto driven by Robert Shaffstall of 1263 E. Center St. Firemen of the Central Station said a radiator hose broke, spilling antifreeze on the hot motor, which ignited it. Damage was minor.

Training Program Set

KENTON—A new Explorer Scout training program has been instituted in Kenton and sessions will begin on Jan. 12. Three sessions will be held. The meetings will be held at the Ohio Power Co. building in Kenton. The training is for adults 18 years and older. The new Explorer program is designed to attract more high school boys and provide them with a program they want, supervised by qualified adult leadership. District organization chairman is Robert Philips of Kenton.

2,500 Attend Dinner

Toledo Residents Join In Sendoff for DiSalles

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—It dripped with sentiment, that going-away party Mike and Myrtle DiSalle received from their hometown Wednesday night.

A visiting cynic would have found it easy to dismiss the whole affair as "cornball" or "schmaltz."

But 2,500 Toledoans who jammed the Exhibit Hall of Sports Arena to honor the couple who will become Ohio's first family next Monday were sincere in their desire to wish a couple of good neighbors bon voyage.

Belated Birthday Party

Veterans around this big Lake Erie port city said the sendoff was the biggest thing of its kind—by far—they ever saw. Nearly 2,500 Toledoans paid $5 a head for the farewell dinner.

It was also a belated birthday party for the Democratic governor-elect who was 51 Tuesday. Each guest at the big party had a small, tiered birthday cake with one tiny candle. At one point in the program, the hall was dimmed and 2,500 candles flickered while 2,500 voices sang "happy birthday" for the first governor ever elected from Toledo.

His voice choked and his eyes close to tears, DiSalle told the homefolks:

Celebrities Present

"With all this backing, how can a person go to Columbus and try to do less than his best? The best thing that can happen to a person, win or lose, is to be worthy of his family and his fellow citizens. After all the heartaches of the past, this washes it all away."

The program was studded by brief speeches from such celebrities as John Daly, television commentator and panel moderator; Earl Wilson, Ohio-born Broadway columnist, and Toots Shor, famed Broadway restaurateur.

But it took H. Roe Bartle, mayor of Kansas City, Mo., and an aide to DiSalle in the office of price stabilization days of 1951, to steal the show with a laugh-packed address.

A speakers' table 100 feet long displayed the DiSalle family—his father, wife, children, brothers, sisters and in-laws. He told newsmen before the dinner that 33 members of his family will fill five small-to-medium aircraft to make the trip to Monday's inaugural.

"I'm afraid it's going to look like an air raid," he laughed.

The new first family will leave Toledo (DiSalle has lived here 48 years) Friday and stay in a downtown Columbus hotel Friday night. The DiSalles expect to move into the governor's mansion over the weekend.

DiSalle plans a meeting of his new Cabinet Saturday in Columbus.

The inauguration is scheduled for Noon Monday.

But Toledoans insist they actually installed DiSalle at Wednesday night's shindig.

Blistered, dried or dark skin on frozen duck usually indicates that the freezing or storage methods are inferior; properly cared for frozen duck is as good a product as fresh duck.

Iraq Blocking Nasser's Trade Pact Proposal

CAIRO (AP) — President Nasser's plan for an Arab economic union has about ground to a halt on obstructions thrown up by the Iraqi delegation to the current Arab League Council meeting.

The Iraqi tactics have kept the meeting in a preliminary stage ever since it opened Monday. Their chief targets are the proposed Arab development bank and Arab economic union, or common market.

The Iraqi regime of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem, which has strong Communist support, sees both plans as a long step toward an Arab political union dominated by Nasser and his United Arab Republic.

At the opening session, the U.A.R. delegation pressed hard for approval of the development bank and economic union as an Arab answer to the European Common Market. The U.A.R. announced unilateral reduction of duties on industrial exports to the other Arab states.

The Iraqi delegation, headed by leftist Economy Minister Ibrahim Kubba, went along with the bank and union propects in principle but introduced so many reservations, conditions and amendments that they successfully buried the schemes in subcommittees.

1-B—IN MEMORIAMS

IN LOVING MEMORY of our darling boy, Kenneth Robert Everett, who departed so suddenly Jan. 8, 1958.
He loaned me a flower, my Father above,
A dear little rosebud to tend and to love;
And O, I found joy and contentment, so true,
In watching my flower unfold as it grew.
But brief was its stay in my garden below;
In Paradise Garden my bud blooms, I know.
And deep in my heart, tho' the tears dim my eye,
Sweet memories linger, that never shall die.
I know in this garden so fragrant and fair,
The Gardener is tending my flower with care.
He walks 'mong his lilies and roses so sweet;
And loves every bud into beauty complete.
I know that someday He shall call me and I,
Shall know all the "Whys" and the "Wherefores" for aye.
And so I am trusting, and waiting in prayer;
And Heaven seems near since my flower is there.
Mommy, Daddy, B. B. John, Nancy, Pa Pa and all those who loved him

YES, IT DOES LOOK LIKE BITS OF PLANT LIFE—OR ALGAE—STUCK TO HER NAILS.
—OR SEAWEED.
SEAWEED?
ONE HOUR LATER
THE LAB WILL NEED SAMPLES OF THIS WATER AS WELL AS SOME DEBRIS FROM THE BOTTOM.
I BETTER GET THE MANAGER AND HAVE HIM DRAIN THE POOL.
IS THERE A POSSIBILITY POPSIE'S MOTHER WAS DROWNED—BUT NOT IN THIS POOL?
A POSSIBILITY—ED—A POSSIBILITY.

RIP KIRBY By John Prentice

THEN THE GUARD DOWN THERE WILL KNOW IF ANYONE TOUCHES THE SCARAB?
YES, CINDY. WHEN THE SIGNAL LIGHT GOES ON, HE'LL ALERT MEN TO COVER EVERY EXIT...
I'LL BE ON GUARD AS MANY HOURS OF THE DAY AS POSSIBLE! MEANWHILE, YOU MUST KEEP OUT OF SIGHT.
WHATEVER YOU SAY, RIP.
OUR CABLES ARE UNDELIVERED, DOCTOR. THEY REPORT THE STUPID TORHAN HAS DROPPED FROM SIGHT.
I CAN DEPEND ON NO ONE. I WILL HANDLE THIS MYSELF.
